Portfolio Impairment Analysis

In this section, we present a review of our investment portfolio to identify and measure any assets that may be in management's opinion impaired. An asset is considered impaired when its carrying amount exceeds what management believes is its recoverable amount, which may be higher than its fair value, less costs to sell and its value in use. The process of impairment testing is a critical aspect of our commitment to transparency and prudent financial management. It is conducted in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) and the guidelines set forth by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

This assessment evaluates a range of factors including, but not limited to, contractual agreements, market trends, the operational performance of underlying portfolio companies, and broader economic conditions that may influence the valuation of our portfolio assets. Should an asset be deemed impaired, we endeavor to take appropriate measures to adjust its carrying value and to reflect changes in our financial statements accurately.

The following details, the results of our assessments for the Q4 2023, and the implications for our NAV reporting and investment strategy going forward. Relative to the broader Venture Capital sector, our portfolio impairments remain low.

Offering Price Adjustment: (Implemented February 1st, 2024)

This Amendment Supplemental No. 9 ("Supplement") served as an official notification to amend certain sections of the Confidential Private Placement Memorandum ("Memorandum") issued by Capital Q Management LLC (the "Company").

1) Offering Price Revision:

- a) Effective as of February 1st, 2024, the Company's Board of Directors has revised the Offering Price per share from $700.00 to $812.00.
- b) This adjustment was sought to align the Offering Price more closely with the Company's fourth quarter 2023 NAV Reporting of $902.88.
- c) The revised Offering Price, while still at a discount to the BDC's then NAV, is intended to safeguard against undue dilution to the benefit of our existing shareholders when admitting new investors into the BDC.

2) Authority to Adjust Offering Price:

- a) The Board of Directors retains the discretionary authority to modify the Offering Price per share. Such modifications may either increase or decrease the Offering Price, but it shall never surpass the Net Asset Value ("NAV"), as periodically determined by the BDC Manager. This applies, particularly if our NAV per share: (i) declines more than 10% from the NAV per share as of the effective date of the offering or (ii) increases more than 10% of the net proceeds per share, as stated in this Memorandum.

3) Reference to Risk Factors:

- a) For an elaborate discussion on the implications and potential risks associated with the Offering Price, prospective and existing investors are directed to review the section titled "Risk Factors: Offering Price" in the Memorandum.

Administrator (Amendment)

NAV Consulting, Inc. (the "Administrator" or "NAV") has been engaged as the administrator of the Fund pursuant to a Service Agreement entered into with the Fund (the "NAV Agreement"). In no event shall NAV have any liability to the Fund, any Investor or any other person or entity which seeks to recover alleged damages or losses in excess of the fees paid to NAV by the Fund in the one year preceding the occurrence of any loss, nor shall NAV be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, collateral, exemplary or punitive damages, including lost profits, revenue or data, regardless of the form of the action or the theory of recovery, even if NAV has been advised of the possibility of such damages or such damages were foreseeable. Any claim brought against NAV in connection with the NAV Agreement will be barred unless it is initiated within one year of the earlier of the disclosure of the event which is the subject of such claim or the date that the party advancing such claim knew or could with due inquiry have known of such event.

NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person for the actions or omissions of any agent, contractor, consultant or other third party performing any portion of the services under the NAV Agreement absent a finding of gross negligence or fraud on the part of NAV in appointing such agent, contractor, consultant or other third party.

In connection with the payment processing functions, NAV shall not be responsible for performance of the due diligence on payment recipients other than in connection with payments for Investors' withdrawals from the Fund, which are subject to anti-money laundering review functions of the services.

The NAV Agreement also provides that it is the obligation of the Fund's management, and not of NAV, to review, monitor or otherwise ensure compliance by the Fund with the investment policies, restrictions or guidelines applicable to it or any other term or condition of the Fund's offering documents, including, without limitation, with its valuation policy or the Fund's stated investment strategy, and with laws and regulations applicable to its activities. The Fund's management's responsibility for the management of the Fund, including without limitation, the valuation of the Fund's assets and liabilities, including, defining and maintaining the valuation policy and for fair valuing the Fund's assets, the oversight of the services provided by NAV and the review of work product delivered by NAV shall not be affected by or limited by any of the services provided by NAV.

The NAV Agreement provides that NAV is entitled to rely on any information, including valuation information, received by NAV from the Fund, the Fund's management or other parties, including without limitation, broker-dealers and data vendors, without independent verification, audit, review, inquiry, or performing other due diligence and NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other persons for losses suffered as a result of NAV relying on incorrect information. NAV has no responsibility to review, independently value, verify, compare to other pricing sources or otherwise perform due diligence on the valuation information. NAV may accept such information as accurate and complete without independent verification. Furthermore, NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, any Investor or any other person for any loss incurred as a result of an error or inaccuracy of any valuation information received from the Fund or from any pricing or valuation service or data service provider or delay, interruption in service or failure to perform of any pricing or valuation service or data service provider used by NAV.

Where the Fund makes investments via related entities, to produce net asset value calculation, NAV will use the valuation information of such intermediate, related entities. The valuation information of the intermediate, related entities may be provided by the Fund's manager or the manager of the intermediate, related entities. NAV is not responsible for performing any due diligence on any of the Fund's investments, including, the intermediate, related entities and for verifying the existence of the end investments. The Fund is responsible for the completeness of records, documents and information provided to NAV to perform the Services.

The Fund acknowledges the challenges in performing Services for investments in cryptocurrency due to the nature of this asset class, including its anonymity and opacity among other factors. Due to these factors and the fact that cryptocurrency is in the early stages in its life, NAV may not have independent access to information in the same manner as it does for traditional assets and has to rely on the information provided by the management of the Fund.

The Fund agrees that NAV has no responsibility to verify, confirm or validate the existence, ownership or control of any cryptocurrency asset held by the Fund. To determine Fund's positions in cryptocurrency in connection with the Services, NAV will rely on the Fund's management representations about said positions. The representation by the Fund's management NAV is entitled to rely on, includes, without limitation, the position information of: 1. cryptocurrency held in cold wallet, in the Fund's exchange account, or in the Fund's account with cryptocurrency custodian, 2. the initial coin offerings (“ICOs”), 3. cryptocurrency traded over-the-counter, 4. cryptocurrency received due to forks, airdrops or similar transactions, and 5. cryptocurrency acquired from Fund’s mining. If the Fund holds the cryptocurrency in cold wallet, NAV may confirm the amount of cryptocurrency reported on the respective blockchain for the public key of the Fund, provided that given cryptocurrency has a public blockchain and a public key to such blockchain was given by the Fund or its Fund’s management to NAV. Having said that, the Fund acknowledges that it is not possible for NAV to determine whether a public key belongs to the Fund. Provided that NAV receives read only access or read only API access, NAV may also confirm Fund’s holdings based on the information apparent via such read only access or read only API access to the Fund’s exchange accounts or Fund’s accounts hosted by cryptocurrency custodians. Having said that, the Fund acknowledges that it is not possible for NAV to determine whether the API key belongs to the Fund. Shall the Fund engage in investing in the ICOs, the holdings in the ICOs and pre-sales may not be visible to NAV between the time of funding and the closing of the ICO. Accordingly, to perform the Services, for the holdings in the ICOs and pre-sales, NAV will rely solely on the Fund’s management representations regarding said positions. NAV may rely on the trade confirmations received from the Fund’s management’s and other counterparties for the OTC transactions. Shall the Fund engage in mining of cryptocurrency, NAV will not independently verify or otherwise perform any due diligence to determine that the cryptocurrencies acquired from mining were actually obtained as a result of Fund’s mining activity and not from any other source. The Fund may receive assets due to forks, airdrop or similar transactions. NAV will not verify these transactions independently, but will rely solely on the information provided by the Management for these transactions. NAV may include in the Fund’s net asset value assets due to forks, airdrops and similar transactions based on the Fund’s management representations, even though, these assets may not be reported by the exchanges in the Fund’s exchange accounts or wallets. The assets due to forks, airdrops and similar transactions may be allocated to the Fund’s exchange or wallet accounts with delays, however, there is a possibility that the Fund may not receive these assets during the Fund’s lifetime. The Fund acknowledges and agrees that NAV will not be required to independently ascertain, confirm nor verify the accuracy of the representations, confirmations and other information relied on by NAV discussed in this paragraph in performing the Services. NAV shall not be liable to the Fund, Investors or any other persons for losses suffered as a result of NAV’s reliance on the aforementioned representations and other information relied.

The Fund acknowledges challenges in obtaining valuation information for digital assets. To provide the Services, NAV will rely on prices published by the cryptocurrency exchanges. Each cryptocurrency may be traded on various cryptocurrency exchanges and there may be significant variations between the prices of the same cryptocurrency traded on different cryptocurrency exchanges. NAV will rely on the Fund’s management to select the exchange to be used as a source for valuation of each cryptocurrency and to decide what valuation point to use. Before being listed on an exchange, any ICOs and cryptocurrency acquired from Fund’s mining activities will be priced at cost or fair value as determined by the Fund’s management. The cost of mining shall be determined by the Fund’s management. The Fund acknowledges and agrees that NAV has no responsibility to independently verify or otherwise perform any due diligence on the cost of mining valuations. Once an ICO is listed on an exchange, NAV will rely on the Fund’s management to select the source exchange and will use the prices published on that exchange. The Fund acknowledges and agrees that NAV has no responsibility to review, independently value, verify, compare to other pricing sources or otherwise perform due diligence on the cryptocurrency valuation information and makes no representations or warranties with respect to its accuracy. The Fund agrees that it is the responsibility of the management of the Fund, and not NAV, to verify whether the exchanges selected by the Fund’s management as a valuation source or used for trading are operating lawfully, including, whether they are required to be registered with a regulator or whether they are registered.

The Service Agreement provides that the Services, including the anti-money laundering services provided by NAV, do not encompass monitoring of Fund’s trading activity for the purposes of detecting or preventing money laundering. NAV Consulting, Inc. is not responsible for monitoring transactions effected by the Fund's management to ensure compliance with the applicable AML laws and regulations. NAV Consulting, Inc. does not monitor Fund's trading activities for the purposes of assuring compliance with OFAC Sanctions programs. For avoidance of doubt, for the purposes of this paragraph, trading shall include acquisition of cryptocurrency from mining, forks, airdrop and similar transactions or participating in an ICO. In addition, shall the Fund accept the payments for subscriptions or redemptions in-kind in cryptocurrency, the Fund acknowledges that NAV is not able to confirm, verify, or ascertain the source of in-kind payments in cryptocurrency due to the anonymity of cryptocurrency and the Fund agrees that NAV shall not be responsible for monitoring such transactions for the purposes of detecting or preventing money laundering.

The information on investor statements and other reports produced by NAV shall not be considered an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any interest in the Fund, nor may it be used to induce or recommend the purchase or holding of any interest in the Fund.

The NAV Agreement bars non-parties from asserting third party beneficiary claims against NAV.

The Fund pays NAV fees out of the Fund's assets, generally based upon the size of the Fund, in accordance with NAV's standard schedule for providing similar services, subject to a monthly minimum.

Either party may terminate the NAV Agreement on 180 days' prior written notice as well as on the occurrence of certain events.

Investors may review the NAV Agreements by contacting the Fund; provided, that NAV reserves the right not to disclose the fees payable thereunder.

NAV is not responsible for the preparation of this Confidential Memorandum or the activities of the Fund and therefore accepts no responsibility for any information contained in any other section of this Confidential Memorandum.

CAPQ BDC's Plans to File Form N-2 (Continuation)

Consistent with the BDC regulations established by the SEC, CAPQ BDC intends to file a Form N-2 within two years post initiating investment acceptance from investors, excluding its Sponsor, Capital Q Ventures, Inc. This approach is distinct from a Rule 415 shelf registration and adheres to the guidelines specifically crafted for BDC's and closed-end management investment companies.

Filing a Form N-2 permits a BDC to register in accordance with the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to offer its shares under the Securities Act of 1933. Following this transition, the BDC seeks to acquire the status of an SEC reporting company and has intentions to initiate trading through OTC Link LLC (OTC Link).

Post the 30-day window succeeding our initial public offering, the BDC will become "piggyback qualified," a qualification that provides other FINRA registered broker-dealers the liberty to quote our securities. While our immediate focus lies in these milestones, our overarching aspiration, contingent on the Board of Directors' assessment, remains to fulfill the listing prerequisites of NASDAQ. It's a revered platform open to entities that are in line with the reporting mandates of both the SEC and Nasdaq Stock Market, meet the stipulated eligibility criteria, have access to audited financial statements, and appoint a third-party securities attorney or investment bank to scrutinize disclosures and provide advisory services.

In parallel to these endeavors, CAPQ BDC is actively exploring strategic avenues, notably considering acquisitions of publicly traded BDCs or potential business combinations with exchange traded BDCs. This proactive approach is also marked by the commencement of discussions with leading investment banks to spearhead the registration endeavors. These engagements not only reflect our commitment to growth but also underscore the strategic importance we assign to partnerships and collaborations in the ever-evolving financial landscape.

Management Fees

Capital Q Management LLC, the BDC Manager of CAPQ BDC Inc., has voluntarily waived its entitled Management Fees of 1.75% and the 20% Profit Participation from the inception of the BDC on 9/30/2019 until the present time. This waiver forms a key part of Management's strategic plan to accelerate the growth and increase the Net Asset Value (NAV) of the BDC in the most expeditious manner. It is important to note, however, that Capital Q Management LLC reserves the right to levy its 1.75% Management Fee and 20% Profit Participation at a future date, in accordance with the governing agreements and regulations. Investors can be assured, for the avoidance of doubt, that no Management Fees will be imposed on the initial seed capital that was provided by Capital Q Ventures to the BDC.

Charges and Expenses

Capital Q Ventures Inc., the parent company of CAPQ BDC Inc. and its BDC Manager, has functioned as the Seed Investor and consequently absorbed all associated costs, charges and expenses ("Operational Costs") since the inception of the BDC on 9/30/2019. These Operational Costs encompass all aspects of the BDC's costs, including project origination, occupancy, and general office expenditures, that may have otherwise been shouldered by investors of the BDC. By undertaking these costs, Capital Q Ventures Inc. has effectively shielded shareholders from incurring additional financial obligations. However, CAPQ BDC Inc. reserves the right to recover such Operational Cost at a future date, if deemed necessary. The company anticipates that these operational costs and expenses, if ever levied, would not exceed 1.25% of the investment.

Rule 12b-1 Fees.

To be paid from the estimated Operational Costs, the BDC shall pay to an affiliated or unaffiliated Distributor(s), an amount up to 0.50%, of the amount that is being invested by investors originated by such Distributor(s) as compensation for the Distributor(s)' services as distributor of BDC Shares in connection with activities or expenses primarily intended to result in the sale of the BDC Shares. Expenses may include, but are not limited to, payment of compensation, including incentive compensation to securities dealers and financial institutions and organizations to obtain various distribution related and/or shareholder services for the investors in the BDC or in Registered Investment Advisor (RIA) overrides for firms who in turn invest clients in the BDC Shares; payment of compensation to and expenses of personnel of the Distributor(s) who support the distribution of the Shares; expenses related to the cost of financing or providing such financing from the Distributor(s) or an affiliate resources in connection with the Distributor(s) payment of such distribution expenses and the payment of other direct distribution costs such as the cost of printing of sales literature, advertising and PPMs. Shareholder services include, but are not limited to, transmitting PPMs, statements of additional information, shareholder reports, proxy statements and other materials to shareholders; providing educational materials; providing facilities to answer questions about the Funds; receiving and answering correspondence; assisting shareholders in completing application forms and selecting dividend and other account options and providing such other information and services as the Distributor or BDC Manager may reasonable request.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Capital Q Ventures Inc. - Our Parent Company

Founded in 2017, our parent company Capital Q® Ventures Inc. a Florida Sub Chapter M – Regulated Investment Company, intends on becoming the most ground-breaking alternative investment managers. Capital Q Ventures Inc. sponsors its proprietary Tri-Party Venture Funds® and our company CAPQ BDC Inc. a "Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC".

With a vision to be the most innovative alternative fund manager and change the way investors work with both well-established (older than 20 years) private companies along with serving younger entrepreneurs and early-stage companies to reduce the friction in securing all-rounds of funding.

Once companies are accepted as Venture Partners or into our Capital Partnership Program, we invest or syndicate all funding rounds, for both the older companies as Venture Partner in Tri-Party Venture Funds® but also the early and emerging growth stage companies as Capital Partners into CAPQ BDC Inc. our Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC.

CAPQ BDC Inc.

CAPQ BDC Inc. d/b/a Capital Q® Business Development Company, (the "Company" or the "BDC") is an externally managed closed-end investment management company that is specifically regulated by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act). The BDC has elected to be subject to the provisions of Sections 55 through 65 of the 1940 Act. The Company was organized as a Florida Corporation on March 20, 2019, to operate as a private (non-publicly traded) "Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC", as defined herein. The Company exclusively invested Seed Capital provided by its Sponsor Capital Q Ventures, Inc. and began a limited private offering of its shares to Investors on June 1, 2022.

Business Development Company

The U.S. Congress created business development companies in 1980 to fuel job growth and assist emerging U.S. businesses in raising funds. BDCs are closely involved in providing advice about the operations of their portfolio companies.

Under the current regulation a BDC must invest at least 70% of its assets in private or public U.S. firms with market values of less than $250 million. These companies are often young businesses, seeking financing, or firms that are suffering or emerging from financial difficulties. The BDC must also provide managerial assistance to the companies in its portfolio to remain compliant Section 54 of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

As a result of this special investment purpose, BDCs are exempt from certain regulatory constraints imposed by the 1940 Act on traditional investment companies and generally benefit from passthrough tax treatment (i.e., where the entity is not taxed, and the tax is passed on to the owners of the entity).

Given the limited access to, and availability of, financing from traditional bank lenders, BDCs have recently played an important and increasing role as a crucial source of capital and liquidity to small and mid-sized companies that may not be able to otherwise obtain financing or do so at attractive rates. While the majority of BDCs have a class of equity securities that is listed on a national securities exchange, many have elected to remain private. A private BDC is one that offers and sells its securities in a private placement to accredited third-party investors without registering the offer of its securities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act).

More than ten private BDCs have been brought to market since 2016. Private BDCs are usually sponsored or formed by parent private equity firms or financial institutions that already have the necessary pre-existing relationships with stakeholders who originate transactions to maintain a pipeline of projects or "deal-flow."

Notwithstanding the absence of a public securities offering, the private BDC must still comply with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), reporting requirements similar to its public company BDC peers because it is required to register, or file an exception from registration, under the 1940 Act.

Investment Thesis for Our BDC

The BDC's investment thesis is to capitalize on debt and equity opportunities with a balanced approach to provide for current income and long terms capital appreciation of its investment. The BDC seeks to achieve this objective through disciplined portfolio analyses, of its international deal origination network and through its novel portfolio company mentoring program.

Capital Q® Management LLC, a Florida limited liability company, serves as the BDC Manager (the "BDC Manager") of CAPQ BDC Inc. Under the BDC Management Agreement (as the same may be amended, supplemented or revised from time to time, the "BDC Management Agreement"), the BDC Manager is primarily responsible for the day-to-day management of the BDC. The office of the BDC Manager is located at: 100 East Faith Terrace, Suite 1016, Maitland, Florida 32751 and the telephone number is 407.307.2277. The managing members of the BDC Manager are Michael Quatrini and Bruno Quatrini (see Management).

The BDC is presently accepting subscriptions from a limited number of sophisticated investors (as described in the "Summary of Key Terms," below), generally in minimum amounts of not less than $100,000. The BDC is seeking aggregate capital contributions of $50,000,000 from its investors. The BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, may increase or decrease the aggregate amount of capital contributions sought by the BDC.

Investors in the BDC will generally be subject to (i) a quarterly management fee, payable in arrears equal to 0.4375% of each investor's capital account balance as of the end of such quarter; and (ii) beginning twenty-four (24) months after the BDC commences operations, a carried interest equal to 20% of each investor's ratable share of the BDC's realized profits with respect to the underlying investments, provided that the BDC Manager will receive no carried interest with respect to an investor until such investor has first received and/or reinvested an aggregate of eight percent (8%) Priority Distribution proceeds from income generated from debt and by the sale of underlying investments and distributions of capital gains to investor's, the Priority Distributions is based on the aggregate capital contributions to the BDC.

An investment in the BDC is illiquid. Investors may not voluntarily withdraw any capital from the BDC. In certain circumstances, however, an investor may be required to withdraw from the BDC if the BDC Manager reasonably determines, in its sole discretion, that such investor's continued participation in the BDC would result in a violation of the applicable laws or could otherwise be expected to have a material adverse effect on the BDC and/or the BDC Manager. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the twenty-four (24) months of the BDC's operations, the BDC will distribute, no less than 90% of the realized proceeds from the sale of each underlying investment to investors, provided such investors will have the option to reinvest such realized proceeds rather than receive such distribution.

INVESTMENT PROGRAM

Investment Objective

The Company's investment objective is to capitalize on venture capital early and emerging growth stage companies at an early initial entry point seeking a balance between debt and equity investment opportunities, and then participating or syndicating co-investments and follow-on investments directly or through third parties, throughout the companies' lifecycle and within the entire capital stack, creating what the Company, defines as a "Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC". Venture Debt Investments create current income while venture equity positions create capital appreciation and both debt and equity investments are held until the portfolio companies are likely to successfully exit the BDC's positions, to either subsequent downline debt investors, (predominately Middle Market BDC and non-bank lender or banks) or through M&A, secondary sales and/or IPOs for the Company's equity harvest strategies.

THE "FULL-STACK VENTURE CAPITAL BDC" MODEL

Debt only, Upper Middle Market BDCs which have traditionally been the predominant participants in the BDC Marketplace. These BDCs have begun to fundamentally alter their business models because they are being pulled by the most innovative firms to partake in equity growth. New balanced debt and equity BDCs have begun to steer the industry and traditional (debt only) BDCs towards debt and equity portfolios. This is creating an increasing demand for balanced debt and equity exposure and to access current income and capital appreciation investments for multiple income and growth dynamics. The Company has created a Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC to meet market demands in the lower emerging marketplace and to become the innovation leader in the BDC industry, which is most desired in the marketplace and favorable for investors seeking a balance of current income and capital appreciation.

While a Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC may be an atypical structure, where the BDC raises money and invests across every stage of their qualifying early-stage companies and also remains free to invest in many types of assets like senior and junior debt, collateralized debt obligations, revenue royalty investments, emerging growth equity, convertibles, Series A through D stage funding rounds, Pre-IPO and even secondaries. Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs like other BDCs (usually) employ a team of professional advisors or "mentoring" staff to help their portfolio companies, hence not only providing the regulatory mandated managerial assistance required by BDC regulation but have the benefit of an insider's view to help guide the success of their portfolio companies and attempt to mitigate risk from this asset class.

Why do BDC Investors want this? Primarily, because venture capital can be the best performing asset class and access to successful pre-IPO equity investments can be one of the best performing sectors of the public markets. That coupled with the debt investment income, allows for earlier distributions than traditional Venture Capital cohorts.

Why do BDCs want this? Good startups are staying private longer, compelling all-stage investing; much of value accrual is now outside of debt and preferred stock; and equity transactions are more competitive than ever.

The upshot is a significant increase in the complexity of the finance of venture capital. BDCs are responding by becoming more balanced in their approach but our BDC's novel "Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC" methodology should be the preeminent business plan for BDCs in the future. It is the largest change in the BDC industry since the creation of the field in the 1980s and clever companies are poised to transform the BDC industry, which may change the venture capital industry along with it.

The FULL-STACK VENTURE CAPITAL BDC as an alternative to Venture Capital and traditional BDCs

Venture Capital ("VC") has not innovated as much as the tech industry which the vast majority of VCs serve (though the common refrain that venture hasn't innovated at all is probably incorrect). The simple reason for slow innovation for VCs is regulations. Venture Capital exists under a very narrow set of SEC exemptions that allow them to avoid the costly regulations that would normally accompany their product line. The mundane reason is that, until recently, there haven't been many VCs, and competition tends to be the mother of innovation.

But there is also a deeper reason. Tech industry funding trades off business model simplicity to enable more technology and product innovation. Compared to other sectors of business, the tech industry is relatively simple and sometimes even unsophisticated. As tech more deeply penetrates society, and as companies stay private longer, this may no longer be tenable because the increase in complexity means a need for more types of financing and funding partners capable and willing to traverse the full capital stack and issuing both debt and equity, even simultaneously.

The response to all of this is the Company's Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC model. Roughly put, the idea is not just investing across all stages and several asset classes while compelling more operational guidance but also offering deal sophistication without undue complexity. The core concept revolves around the idea that companies now engage in financial operations beyond primary venture capital, which itself is now occurring much more in the lifetime of a company (requiring investing in many stages to avoid being diluted into oblivion).

Investors are demanding more traditional middle market BDCs give them access to equity growth, where previously those company were not dissimilar to middle market junk bond funds and factor lenders. Because Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs already have relationships with the best startups and better understand their needs, they are also in the strongest position to offer every sort of on-time and creative financing that may suit the entrepreneur and reward their investors. It's also impossible to not mention today's creative financing in the form of NFTs and cryptocurrencies which will prove to drive significant determining factors for future financing and valuations. The lesson for Venture Capital and outdated BDCs is that while they may spot great opportunities to invest in ever evolving modern capital structures, their funding models must also evolve to allow them to engage, if and when needed. Most traditional BDCs and Venture Capital Firms simply cannot.

Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs participate in several different strategies depending on which part of the financial lifecycle they want to attack. Over-time Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs will compete within all stages by offering diversified financial products and invest in more assets directly. Likewise, by freeing themselves of customary Venture Capital SEC restrictions, Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs can engage in far more complex financing not even available to VCs (for example, most VC funds generally cannot take on leverage).

Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs have a preliminary stage that seems similar but is distinct as the all-stage investor. CAPQ BDC intends to raise funds to invest in companies at any stage, often doubling down or leading consecutive rounds in existing portfolio companies or at least maintaining ownership targets across what is now a very long private company lifecycle, which will continue to be the benchmark.

While all Full-Stack Venture Capital BDCs are all-stage, not all BDC charters allow them to be "full-stack". Some BDCs have fought valiantly against becoming debt and equity investors. Most BDCs have built a model around traditional debt investments, so they remain restricted to invest in only debt rounds. Despite doing well to keep their focus, through strict upper middle market debt vehicles, the prediction is that most BDCs will inevitably lose the deal origination battles from what now is a "hand-off" by VCs or lower-level financing partners to those upper middle market BDC lenders. Our Company, as a Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC, is defined by our ability to invest across round and asset classes, so in contrast there is no "hand-off" needed to occur for our deal-flow.

Being a Full-Stack Venture Capital BDC has two interesting propositions which is core to the Company's value proposition that investors can receive a balance of "income and growth". It is a direct repudiation of that common wisdom that "venture capital cannot provide both debt and equity returns, which we are determined to demonstrate to our investors.

Limits of Description of Investment Program

The BDC Manager is not limited by the above discussion of the investment program. Although the investment program is intended to be primarily in debt and equity BDC opportunities, broader investment opportunities may be pursued. Further, the investment program is a strategy as of the date of this Memorandum only. The BDC Manager has wide latitude to invest or trade the BDC's assets, to pursue another particular strategy or tactic, or to change the emphasis without obtaining the approval of the BDC Investors, although the BDC Manager intends to notify BDC Investors before making a material change to the BDC's investment strategy. The investment program imposes no significant limits on the types of instruments in which the BDC Manager may take positions, the type of positions it may take, its ability to borrow money (within the BDC regulated leverage maximums), or the concentration of investments. The foregoing description is general and is not intended to be exhaustive. Prospective investors must recognize that there are inherent limitations on all descriptions of investment processes due to the complexity, confidentiality, and subjectivity of such processes. In addition, the description of virtually every trading strategy must be qualified by the fact that trading approaches are continually changing, as are the markets invested in by the BDC Manager.

There can be no assurance that the BDC will achieve its investment objective or avoid substantial losses. An investor should not make an investment in the BDC with the expectation of sheltering income or receiving cash distributions. Investors are urged to consult with their personal advisers before investing in the BDC. Because risks are inherent in all the investments in which the BDC engages, no assurances can be given that the BDC's investment objectives will be realized.

SIDE POCKET INVESTMENTS

The BDC Manager may, at any time, designate a BDC investment that the BDC Manager believes either lacks a readily assessable market value or should be held until the resolution of a special event or circumstances (each such investment, a “Side Pocket Investment”). Due to the generally illiquid nature of the underlying BDC investments, the BDC Manager intends to designate each such investment as a Side Pocket Investment. A separate bookkeeping account shall be established for each Side Pocket Investment (each a “Side Pocket Investment Account”). Each Side Pocket Investment Account shall have an initial aggregate value (the “Original Value”) equal to the fair value (as determined by the BDC Manager) of the Side Pocket Investment at the time the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established (which shall generally be cost if the investment is designated as a Side Pocket Investment at the time of its acquisition).

On the date a Side Pocket Investment Account is established, each Stockholder’s Capital Account shall be reduced by an amount determined by multiplying such Stockholder’s Allocation Percentage as of such date by the Original Value of such investment. With respect to each Side Pocket Investment, the computation of net capital appreciation or depreciation, as the case may be, shall include only the net capital appreciation or depreciation actually realized upon a liquidation or disposition of such investment for cash (or upon the determination of the BDC Manager that the Side Pocket Investment should no longer be designated as such) (any such event, a “Realization Event”). Upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, the cash proceeds received with respect to such Realization Event shall be reallocated, at such time as the BDC Manager determines, from the Side Pocket Investment Account to the Capital Accounts of each of the Investors participating therein pro rata in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages on the date the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established and, thereafter, the Side Pocket Investment Account shall be closed out.

The Original Value of each Side Pocket Investment may include such reserves (including reserves for working capital and contingencies) as the BDC Manager in its discretion may consider advisable or necessary. In addition, the BDC Manager shall charge any expense relating specifically to a Side Pocket

Investment to each Shareholder that has an interest in the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account in proportion to such Stockholder's Allocation Percentage as of the date such Side Pocket Investment Account was established. A Shareholder admitted to the BDC after the making of a Side Pocket Investment will have no interest in such investment.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

BDC Investors may not voluntarily withdraw any capital from the BDC. In certain circumstances, however, a Shareholder may be required to withdraw from the BDC if the BDC Manager reasonably determines, in its sole discretion, that such Stockholder's continued participation in the BDC would result in a violation of the applicable laws or could otherwise be expected to have a material adverse effect on the BDC and/or the BDC Manager.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the first sixty (60) months of the BDC's operations (the "Lock-Up"), the BDC will generally permit redemptions to each Shareholder of the cash proceeds reallocated to such Stockholder's Capital DISTRIBUTIONS:

Account upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to each Side Pocket Investment (net of any accrued Management Fee and Carried Interest, if any; such amount, the "Distribution Proceeds"), subject to the capital needs of the BDC as determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion.

A Shareholder will be generally provided Distribution Proceeds from its Capital Account as of the last business day of the calendar quarter immediately following the quarter in which the Shareholder received notice that a underlying Realization Event occurred, or such other date as the BDC Manager may determine in its discretion (each such date, a "Distribution Date"). The BDC Manager will notify each Shareholder in writing of each occurrence of a Realization Event.

Payments of Distribution Proceeds are generally made within thirty (30) days of the effective Distribution Date; however, in the event a Shareholder withdraws 90% or more of the BDCs from such Stockholder's Capital Account (or if a distribution, when combined with all other distributions effected by such Shareholder during the preceding twelve (12) months, would result in such Shareholder having withdrawn 90% or more of its Capital Account during such period), a portion (generally not to exceed five percent (5%)) of the Distribution Proceeds will be retained in the BDC Manager's discretion pending completion of the annual audit of the BDC's financial statements for the fiscal year in which the distribution occurs. A Shareholder shall not be entitled to interest on the amount of any retained Distribution Proceeds.

In certain circumstances, the BDC Manager, in its sole and absolute discretion, may suspend the valuation of the BDC's property, the right or obligation to honor distribution requests (including the right to receive Distribution Proceeds), and/or extend the period for payment of Distribution Proceeds. (See the BDC Management Agreement, Section 4.03 "Limitations on Distributions.") The BDC Manager has reserved the right, in its sole discretion and without notice, to require any Shareholder to withdraw entirely from the BDC, for any reason or no reason.

The BDC Manager may establish reserves for expenses, liabilities or contingencies (including those prepaid expenses addressed by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP")) which could reduce the amount of a distribution. (See the BDC Management Agreement, Section 4.05 "Withholding from Distributions.")

PROFITS AND LOSSES:

At the end of each accounting period of the BDC, any net capital appreciation or depreciation is allocated to the Capital Accounts of all Investors in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages for such period. For this purpose, each accounting period shall end at the close of each quarter, at any other time a Shareholder makes an additional capital contribution or receives a distribution, at the time a Side Pocket Investment Account is created, at the time of a Realization Event with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, and at such other times as the BDC Manager may determine.

In addition, following the Lock-Up the BDC Manager shall receive a carried interest (the “Carried Interest”) in an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the net cash proceeds allocated to each Shareholder with respect to Realization Events; provided, however, that the BDC Manager will receive no Carried Interest with respect to a Shareholder until such Shareholder has received and/or reinvested aggregate proceeds from Realization Events in an amount equal to eight percent (8%) of such Stockholder’s aggregate capital contributions to the BDC. The Carried Interest may be computed at any time, in the sole discretion of the BDC Manager, for a Shareholder who makes a partial or complete withdrawal.

In the interest of clarity, for purposes of determining the Carried Interest, no net capital appreciation or depreciation shall be allocated to the Investors with respect to a Side Pocket Investment until such time as a Realization Event has occurred with respect to such Side Pocket Investment.

The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, enter into arrangements with BDC Investors under which the Carried Interest is reduced, waived or calculated differently with respect to such BDC Investors, including, without limitation, BDC Investors that are members, affiliates or employees of the BDC Manager, members of the immediate families of such persons and trusts or other entities for their benefit, or BDC Investors that make a substantial investment or otherwise are determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion to represent a strategic relationship.

ERISA and current IRS regulations prohibit fee payments to oneself and/or an affiliate from one’s IRA or other self-directed retirement account. Accordingly, such an account of an officer of the BDC Manager (or of his spouse) will not be subject to the Management Fee or Carried Interest.

FEES & EXPENSES:

A management fee (the “Management Fee”) is paid quarterly in arrears to the BDC Manager. The Management Fee is equal to 0.4375% (1.75% per annum) of the closing Capital Account balance of each Shareholder for such quarter, including, for this purpose, such Stockholder’s aggregate Shares in all Side Pocket Investments.

The Management Fee will be appropriately prorated to reflect any capital contributions that occur during a quarter. The Capital Account of a Shareholder making a withdrawal other than the last day of a quarter (whether pursuant to ordinary withdrawal rights or where the special consent of the BDC Manager is required and, in its discretion, granted, in either case under Article IV of the BDC Management Agreement) will be charged a pro rata portion of the Management Fee immediately prior to such withdrawal based on the number of days elapsed during such quarter and the portion withdrawn from such Capital Account.

If a Shareholder has withdrawn all of its Capital Account except for its interest in one or more Side Pocket Investments, the Management Fee payable with respect to such Stockholder’s interest in each Side Pocket Investment will be accrued and, upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to each such Side Pocket Investment, will be paid to the BDC Manager.

The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, enter into arrangements with BDC Investors under which the Management Fee is reduced waived or calculated differently with respect to such BDC Investors, including, without limitation, BDC Investors that are members, affiliates or employees of the BDC Manager, members of the immediate families of such persons and trusts or other entities for their benefit, or BDC Investors that make a substantial investment or otherwise are determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion to represent a strategic relationship.

All expenses of the Offering and organization of the BDC (including legal and other expenses) (“Organizational Expenses”) will be paid by the BDC and/or reimbursed by the BDC to the extent paid by the BDC Manager. The Organizational Expenses will be amortized and charged to the Investors’ Capital Accounts on a Quarterly basis over a period of sixty (60) months commencing from the launch of the BDC’s investment activities. GAAP require that organizational costs be treated as an expense when incurred. The BDC Manager believes that the impact on the BDC’s results from this departure from GAAP will result in a fairer apportionment of such expenses among BDC Investors. This departure from GAAP may also result in a qualified audit opinion from the BDC’s auditors. If the BDC is terminated prior to sixty (60) months of the commencement of investment activities, any unamortized expenses will be recognized.

The BDC shall pay for all ordinary operating and other expenses, including, but not limited to, investment-related expenses (such as brokerage commissions, clearing and settlement charges, custodial fees, interest expenses, expenses relating to consultants, brokers or other professionals or advisors who provide research, advice or due diligence services with regard to investments, appraisal fees and expenses and investment banking expenses); research costs and expenses (including fees for news, quotation and similar information and pricing services); legal expenses (including, without limitation, the costs of on-going legal advice and services, blue sky filings and all costs and expenses related to or incurred in connection with the BDC Manager’s compliance obligations under applicable federal and/or state securities and investment adviser laws arising out of its relationship to the BDC, as well as extraordinary legal expenses); the Management Fee; accounting fees and audit expenses; administrative fees; tax preparation expenses and any applicable tax liabilities (including transfer taxes and withholding taxes); other governmental charges or fees payable by the BDC; costs of printing and mailing reports and notices; and other similar expenses related to the BDC, as the BDC Manager determines in its sole discretion.

RISK FACTORS:

In general, investment in the Stock involves various and substantial risks, including (but not limited to) the risk that the BDC assets may be invested in high-risk investments, risks for certain tax-exempt investors, risks related to the limited transferability of a Stockholder’s interest in the BDC, the lack of operating history of the BDC, the BDC’s dependence upon the BDC Manager, and certain tax risks. (See “Risk Factors.”)

DIVERSIFICATION:

The BDC does not have fixed guidelines for diversification and may concentrate its investments in particular geographical areas or types of investments and may utilize different investment strategies, depending on the BDC Manager’s assessment of the available investment opportunities.

LEVERAGE:

The BDC may utilize leverage in its investment program when the BDC Manager considers it appropriate (within the BDC regulatory leverage limits). However, the use of leverage may, in certain circumstances, maximize the adverse impact to which the BDC’s investment portfolio may be subject.

NET ASSET VALUE:

The Net Asset Value of the BDC (“Net Asset Value”) will be determined as is required by the BDC Management Agreement or as may be determined by the BDC Manager, but in any case, no less than quarterly. Each Stockholder’s share of the Net Asset Value is determined by multiplying the total value of the BDC's investments and other assets less any liabilities, by the Stockholder's Allocation Percentage. (See "Valuation of Investments.")

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER:

A Shareholder may not pledge, assign, sell, exchange or transfer its Interest (or any portion thereof), and no assignee, purchaser or transferee may be admitted as a substitute Shareholder, except with the consent of the BDC Manager, which consent may be given or withheld in its sole and absolute discretion.

FISCAL YEAR:

The BDC's fiscal year shall end on December 31.

REPORTS:

The BDC's books of account will be audited at the end of each fiscal year by a firm of certified public accountants selected by the BDC Manager, although the BDC Manager may elect to postpone the first audit of the BDC's annual financial statements until the completion of the BDC's first full fiscal year, in which case the initial audit will cover the applicable fiscal year as well as the partial "stub" year in which the BDC commenced operations. Books of account will generally be kept by the BDC, in accordance with GAAP except to the extent the BDC's auditor determines that the amortization of the Organizational Expenses does not comply with GAAP. The BDC Manager will furnish audited financial statements to all BDC Investors within 90 days, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, following the conclusion of each fiscal year. In addition, all BDC Investors will receive the information necessary to prepare federal and state income tax returns following the conclusion of such fiscal year as soon thereafter as is reasonably practical.

All BDC Investors will also receive unaudited performance reports and such other information as the BDC Manager determines on a quarterly basis. The BDC Manager will not be required to provide information with regard to specific investment transactions of the BDC.

AMENDMENT OF THE BDC MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT:

The BDC Management Agreement provides that the BDC Manager has the right to amend the BDC Management Agreement to, among other things, conform to applicable laws and regulations, to correct any ambiguous, false, or erroneous provision, or to otherwise amend the BDC Management Agreement; provided, that no such amendment shall adversely affect the rights, privileges, and powers of the BDC Investors as a group, unless agreed to by the holders of a majority of Allocation Percentages held by BDC Investors. The BDC Manager is authorized on its own motion to institute proceedings for adoption of a proposed amendment to the BDC Management Agreement. The BDC Manager may seek the approval of BDC Investors to such amendments by means of a "negative consent" process. Investors should note that Shareholders have no voting rights except in very limited and specific situations.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the BDC involves a number of significant risks. The risk factors set forth below are those that, at the date of this Memorandum, the BDC Manager deem to be the most significant. The following is not intended to be a complete description or an exhaustive list of risks. Other factors ultimately may affect an investment in the BDC in a manner and to a degree not now foreseen. Prospective investors should carefully consider, in addition to the matters set forth elsewhere in this Memorandum, the factors discussed below. An investment in the BDC should form only a part of a complete investment program, and an investor must be able to bear the loss of its entire investment. Prospective investors should also consult with their own financial, tax and legal advisors regarding the suitability of this investment.

Summary of Risks

There are a number of risks common to Private BDCs. A summary of risks that are often addressed include the following:

- The lack of public trading of the portfolio investments, which makes it difficult to assess the fair value of the investments.
- Conflicts of interest that could impair returns on investments.
- Limitations on co-investment and follow-on investments.
- Inability to fund below net asset value (NAV).
- Reliance on the external manager to retain key personnel.
- Competitiveness of the investment market.
- Increased risk in investing in the BDC following the reduction in asset coverage ratio from 200% to 150%.
- Loss in BDC status resulting in the entity being regulated as a closed-end investment company under the 1940 Act and losing the exemptions afforded to BDCs.
- Risks related to interest rate exposures.

General

General Investment Risks. The BDC’s success depends on the BDC Manager’s ability to implement its investment strategy. No assurance can be given that the investment strategies to be used by the BDC will be successful under all or any market conditions.

The BDC may increase its cash position to up to 100% of its assets when the BDC Manager deems it prudent or when a defensive position is warranted in light of market conditions. During such times, interest income will increase and may constitute a large portion of the return and the BDC will not participate in market advances or declines to the extent that it would have if it had been more fully invested.

Investment Risks. The BDC is intended for long-term investors who can accept the risks associated with investing primarily in illiquid securities. All investments involve the risk of a loss of capital. The BDC Manager believes that the BDC’s investment program and its research and risk-management techniques moderate this risk through the careful selection of investments. No guarantee or representation is made that the BDC’s investment program will be successful, and investment results may vary substantially over time.

Investments

Business and Financial Risk of BDC Investments. The BDC’s investments involve a high degree of business and financial risk. The companies in which the BDC invests may have significant variations in operating results, may require substantial additional capital to support their operations, or may otherwise have a weak financial condition. In addition, the companies in which the BDC invests may face intense competition, including competition from companies with greater financial resources, more extensive development, marketing, and other capabilities, and a larger number of qualified managerial and technical personnel.

Limited Number of Investments. It is expected that the BDC will invest in a limited number of privately negotiated debt and equity investments. A consequence of a limited number of investments is that the aggregate returns realized by the Investors may be substantially adversely affected by the unfavorable performance of a small number of such investments.

Availability and Ability to Acquire Suitable Investments. The identification of attractive investment opportunities is difficult and involves a high degree of uncertainty. While the BDC Manager believes that many attractive investments of the type in which the BDC may invest are currently available, there can be no assurance that such investments will be available when the BDC commences investment operations, or that available investments will meet the BDC’s investment criteria. Although the BDC Manager believes it can successfully execute the strategy of the BDC, there is no assurance that the BDC Manager will be able to find suitable investments or, if found, that the BDC will be able to generate superior returns.

Illiquid Investments. The BDC may invest in assets for which no liquid market exists or that are subject to legal or other restrictions of transfer. The market prices, if any, for such assets may fluctuate due to a variety of factors that are inherently difficult to predict. The BDC may not be able to sell assets when it desires to do so or to realize what it perceives to be their fair value in the event of a sale.

No Return for a Period of Years. Even if the BDC investments prove successful, they may not produce a realized return for Investors for a period of years.

Securities Regulations Concerning Private Placements. The BDC may invest in securities that are not registered under the Securities Act. The BDC will purchase such securities in reliance upon an exemption from registration pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Act including those provided by Regulation D. Unless such securities are subsequently registered under the Securities Act, they may not be offered or sold except pursuant to an exemption therefrom, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and any other applicable securities law. Therefore, securities purchased pursuant to such exemptions including Regulation D are often illiquid.

Strategy Risks

Lack of Diversification. The BDC is not subject to any restrictions with respect to investments in any particular issuer, industry, geography or type of investment. The BDC may have a non-diversified portfolio and may have large amounts of BDC assets invested in a small number of investments. Such lack of diversification substantially increases market risks and the risk of loss associated with an investment in the BDC.

Leverage Transactions. In order to raise additional cash for investment, the BDC may borrow money from banks and other sources and will pay interest thereon. Any investment gains made with the additional monies in excess of interest paid will cause the Net Asset Value of the BDC to rise faster than would otherwise be the case. On the other hand, if the investment performance of the additional investments purchased fails to cover their cost (including any interest paid on the money borrowed) to the BDC, the Net Asset Value of the BDC will decrease faster than would otherwise be the case. This is the speculative factor known as “leverage.”

Contractual and Litigation Risks. Unlike the purchase of freely tradable shares in the open market, some of the transactions in which the BDC purchases securities will involve substantial contractual obligations by the issuer of such securities requiring the issuer to take certain actions. For the BDC’s investment strategy to be effective, the issuer of such securities must abide by its contractual obligations. The BDC intends to structure its investments to reduce the risks associated with an issuer’s failure to satisfy its contractual obligations, but there can be no assurance that an issuer always will abide by its contractual obligations. The BDC intends to aggressively enforce its rights under its contractual relationships with issuers, although the BDC Manager understands and will be mindful of the costs of litigation. If an issuer fails to meet its contractual obligations, in addition to the possibility of being involved in costly litigation, the BDC may be unable to dispose of the securities at appropriate prices, or may experience substantial delays in doing so, and thus the BDC may not be able to realize the anticipated profit with respect to such investment for a substantial period, if ever.

The BDC Manager Methodology. Investment decisions of the BDC Manager are on a discretionary basis using fundamental analysis and no assurance can be given that such investment strategies used by the BDC Manager will be successful, or that losses could not occur.

Side Pocket Investments. The BDC will generally invest its assets in investments that the BDC Manager believes either lack a readily assessable market value or should be held until the resolution of a special event or circumstances (i.e., Side Pocket Investments). The BDC may not be able to readily dispose of Side Pocket Investments and, in some cases, may be contractually prohibited from disposing of such investments for a specified period of time. For accounting purposes, BDC investments will generally be valued as reported in the most recent audited financial statements of such investments, unless the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, determines that an alternative fair value should be used. There is no guarantee that fair value will represent the value that will be realized by the BDC on the eventual disposition of the investment or that would, in fact, be realized upon an immediate disposition of the investment. A withdrawing Shareholder with an interest in a Side Pocket Investment will not receive any amount in respect of such interest until the related Side Pocket Investment is realized or deemed realized.

Management Risks

Reliance on the BDC Manager and no Authority by BDC Investors. All decisions regarding the management and affairs of the BDC will be made exclusively by the BDC Manager. Accordingly, no person should invest in the BDC unless such person is willing to entrust all aspects of management of the BDC to the BDC Manager. BDC Investors will have no right or power to take part in the management of the BDC. As a result, the success of the BDC for the foreseeable future depends solely on the abilities of the BDC Manager.

Dependence on Key Personnel. The management of the BDC is dependent on the services of the Principals and there can be no assurance that it will be able to retain the Principals, whose credentials are described under the heading “Management of the BDC.” The departure or incapacity of one or more of those individuals could have a material adverse effect on the BDC Manager’s management of the investment operations of the BDC.

Changes in Investment Strategies. The BDC Manager has broad discretion to expand, revise or contract the BDC’s business without the consent of the Shareholders. The BDC’s investment strategies may be altered, without prior approval by the BDC Investors, if the BDC Manager determines that such change is in the best interest of the BDC.

Discretionary Decision-Making May Result in Missed Opportunities. The BDC’s investment strategies do involve some discretionary aspects. Discretionary decision-making may result in failure to capitalize on certain price trends or unprofitable investments in certain situations.

Limitations on the BDC Manager’s Liability and Indemnification. The BDC Management Agreement provides that the BDC Manager and its affiliates, shareholders, members, Investors, managers, directors, officers and employees shall not be liable, responsible nor accountable in damages or otherwise to the BDC or any Shareholder, or to any successor, assignee or transferee of the BDC or of any Shareholder, for (i) any acts performed or the omission to perform any acts, within the scope of the authority conferred on the BDC Manager by the BDC Management Agreement, except by reason of acts or omissions found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final non-appealable judgment to have been made in bad faith or to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence; (ii) performance by the BDC Manager of, or the omission to perform, any acts on advice of legal counsel, accountants, or other professional advisors to the BDC; (iii) the negligence, dishonesty, bad faith, or other misconduct of any consultant, employee, or agent of the BDC, including, without limitation, an affiliate of the BDC Manager, selected or engaged by the BDC Manager with reasonable care and in good faith; or (iv) the negligence, dishonesty, bad faith, or other misconduct of any Person in which the BDC invests or with which the BDC participates as a partner, joint venturer, or in another capacity, which was selected by the BDC Manager with reasonable care and in good faith. Furthermore, the BDC, in the BDC Manager’s sole discretion, will indemnify and hold harmless the BDC Manager and its affiliates, shareholders, members, Investors, managers, directors, officers and employees and the legal representatives of any of them (an “Indemnified Party”), from and against any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense suffered or sustained by an Indemnified Party by reason of (i) any acts, omissions or alleged acts or omissions arising out of or in connection with the BDC, the BDC Management Agreement or any investment made or held by the BDC, including, without limitation, any judgment, award, settlement, reasonable attorneys’ fees and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding, or claim, provided that such acts, omissions or alleged acts or omission upon which such actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim are based are not found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final non-appealable judgment to have been made in bad faith or to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence by such Indemnified Party, or (ii) any acts or omissions, or alleged acts or omissions, of any broker or agent of any Indemnified Party, provided that such broker or agent was selected, engaged or retained by the Indemnified Party with reasonable care. The BDC Management Agreement also provides that the BDC will, in the sole discretion of the BDC Manager, advance to any Indemnified Party attorneys’ fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any action or proceeding which arises out of such conduct.

Limited Reporting. The BDC will provide quarterly unaudited reports of BDC activity. As a result, BDC Investors will not be able to evaluate the BDC’s activity at shorter intervals. Additionally, as a result of side letter arrangements, questions, due diligence requests, meetings or other communications, certain BDC Investors may receive information that is not generally available or otherwise provided to other BDC Investors, which may affect such BDC Investors’ decision to request a withdrawal of their respective Capital Accounts or take other actions on the basis of such information.

Other Risks

Offering Price: The pricing of the common stock shares in this offering has been set without an independent valuation. Instead, it has been established arbitrarily by our management, drawing from factors such as our Net Asset Value (NAV) estimates (as calculated by our BDC Manager), the cumulative expertise of our officers and directors, and prevailing market conditions for equity securities within similar Business Development Companies (BDCs). Importantly, the set offering price will not exceed our estimated NAV. These estimates have been grounded on the best effort judgments made by our BDC Manager and the collective experiences of our officers and directors, or through the application of other objective value standards. As a result, the actual value of the shares may significantly differ from the offering price, and there is no guarantee that the shares will achieve a value equal to or greater than the offered price.

Limited Operating History. The BDC is a recently formed entity and has no operating history upon which prospective investors can evaluate its likely performance. There can be no assurance that the BDC will achieve its investment objective.

Start-Up Periods. The BDC may encounter start-up periods during which it will incur certain risks relating to the initial investment of newly contributed assets. Moreover, the start-up periods also represent a special risk in that the level of diversification of the BDC’s portfolio may be lower than in a fully invested portfolio.

Risk of Loss. A Shareholder could incur substantial, or even total, losses on an investment in the BDC. An investment in the BDC is only suitable for persons willing to accept this high level of risk.

Effect of Carried Interest. The BDC Manager will receive a Carried Interest based on a percentage of any net realized profits. Carried Shares may create an incentive for the BDC Manager to make investments that are riskier or more speculative than would be the case in the absence of such incentive compensation arrangements.

Lack of Liquidity. The BDC's withdrawal provisions place certain restrictions on the right of a Shareholder to withdraw all or part of its Interest, transfer its Interest and pledge or otherwise encumber its Interest. Thus, it is unlikely that a Shareholder will be able to liquidate its Interest in the event of an unanticipated need for cash. Shares may not be transferred or pledged except in compliance with significant restrictions on transfer as required by federal and state securities and commodities laws and as provided in the BDC Management Agreement. The BDC Management Agreement does not permit a Shareholder to transfer or pledge all or any part of its Interest to any person without the prior written consent of the BDC Manager, the granting of which is in the BDC Manager's sole and absolute discretion. These limitations, taken together, will significantly limit a Stockholder's ability to liquidate an investment in the BDC quickly. As a result, an investment in the BDC would not be suitable for an investor who needs liquidity.

Tax Considerations; Distributions to BDC Investors and Payment of Tax Liability. It is not possible to provide here a description of all potential tax risks to a person considering investing in the BDC. Prospective investors are urged to consult their own legal counsel and tax advisors with respect thereto. The BDC will not seek a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") with respect to any tax issues affecting the BDC.

It should also be noted that the BDC's tax return may be audited by the IRS, and any such audit may result in an audit of the returns of the BDC Investors for the year(s) in question or unrelated years. Further, any adjustment resulting from an audit would also result in adjustments to the tax returns of the BDC Investors and may result in an examination and adjustment of other items in such returns unrelated to the BDC. BDC Investors could incur substantial legal and accounting costs in litigation of any IRS challenge, regardless of the outcome. (See "Federal Tax Aspects.")

The BDC may make periodic distributions of its net income or gains, if any, to BDC Investors. A Shareholder will nonetheless be required each year, however, to pay applicable U.S. federal and state income taxes on its share of the BDC's taxable income, and will have to obtain cash from other sources in order to pay such applicable taxes. The amount and timing of any distributions will be determined in the sole discretion of the BDC Manager.

Undistributed Income. The BDC Manager in its sole discretion may, but is not required to, make distributions to BDC Investors during the term of the BDC. Taxable income realized in any year by the BDC will be taxable to the Investors in that year regardless of whether they have received any distributions from the BDC. Accordingly, BDC Investors may recognize taxable income for federal, state, and local income tax purposes without receiving any or a sufficient distribution from the BDC with which to pay the taxes thereon. The BDC Manager may consider such possible tax liability of the BDC Investors when determining whether to make distributions, but no assurance is given that distributions, if made, will equal the amount of any Stockholder's tax liability.

Restrictions on Transfer. The Stock are subject to certain restrictions on transfer, including a requirement that the BDC Manager consent to any such transfer. There is no present market for the Stock, and no market is likely to develop in the future. Accordingly, BDC Investors may not be able to liquidate their investment in the event of an emergency or for any other reason, and Shares may not be readily acceptable as collateral for loans. Shares should be purchased only by prospective Investors who can bear the economic risk of their investment, who can afford to have their BDCs committed to an illiquid investment according to the withdrawal provisions in the BDC Management Agreement and who, if necessary, can afford a complete loss of their investment. (See "Restrictions on Transfers of Shares.")

Lack of Insurance. The assets of the BDC are not insured by any government or private insurer except to the extent portions may be deposited in bank accounts insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or with brokers insured by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation and such deposits and securities are subject to such insurance coverage. Therefore, in the event of the insolvency of a depository or custodian, the BDC may be unable to recover all of its BDCs or the value of its securities so deposited.

Regulations Under Investment Company Act of 1940. The BDC's operations are similar to an investment company as defined under the Investment Company Act, because the BDC engages in the business of purchasing securities for investment. The BDC is currently not required to register under the Investment Company Act due to an exemption for an entity which is beneficially owned by not more than one hundred (100) persons and which does not intend to make any public offering of its securities. Accordingly, the provisions and extensive regulations of the Investment Company Act, which might otherwise govern the activities of the BDC, will not be applicable.

Risks for Certain Benefit Plan Investors Subject to ERISA. Prospective investors that are benefit plan investors subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), and Department of Labor Regulations issued thereunder should read the section hereof entitled “ERISA Considerations” in its entirety for a discussion of certain risks related to an investment by benefit plan investors in the BDC.

Revised Regulatory Interpretations Could Make Certain Strategies Obsolete. In addition to proposed and actual accounting changes, there have recently been certain well-publicized incidents of regulators unexpectedly taking positions which prohibited trading strategies which had been implemented in a variety of formats for many years. In the current unsettled regulatory environment, it is impossible to predict if future regulatory developments might adversely affect the BDC.

Importance of General Economic Conditions. Overall market, industry or economic conditions, which the BDC Manager cannot predict or control, will have a material effect on performance.

The foregoing list of risk factors does not purport to be a complete enumeration or explanation of the risks involved in an investment in the BDC. Prospective BDC Investors should read the entire Memorandum and the BDC Management Agreement and consult with their own advisers before deciding whether to invest in the BDC. In addition, as the BDC’s investment program develops and changes over time, an investment in the BDC may be subject to additional and different risk factors.

POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The BDC Manager and/or its affiliates, shareholders, members, Investors, managers, directors, officers, and employees (collectively the “Affiliated Persons”) will only devote so much time to the affairs of the BDC as is reasonably required in the judgment of the BDC Manager. The Affiliated Persons will not be precluded from engaging directly or indirectly in any other business or other activity, including exercising investment advisory and management responsibility, and buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities and other investments for their own accounts, for the accounts of family members, for the accounts of other BDCs and for the accounts of individual and institutional clients (collectively, “Other Accounts”). Such Other Accounts may have investment objectives or may implement investment strategies similar to those of the BDC. The Affiliated Persons may also have investments in certain of the Other Accounts. Each of the Affiliated Persons may give advice and act in the performance of their duties to their Other Accounts that could differ from the timing and nature of action taken with respect to the BDC. The Affiliated Persons will have no obligation to purchase or sell for the BDC any investment that the Affiliated Persons purchase or sell, or recommend for purchase or sale, for their own accounts or for any of the Other Accounts. The BDC will not have any rights of first refusal, co-investment, or other rights in respect of the investments made by Affiliated Persons for the Other Accounts, or in any fees, profits or other income earned or otherwise derived from them. If a determination is made that the BDC and one or more Other Accounts should purchase or sell the same investments at the same time, the Affiliated Persons will allocate these purchases and sales as is considered equitable to each. No Shareholder will, by reason of being a Shareholder of the BDC, have any right to participate in any manner in any profits or income earned or derived by or accruing to the Affiliated Persons from the conduct of any business or from any transaction in investments effected by the Affiliated Persons for any account other than that of the BDC.

The Affiliated Persons will attempt to allocate investment opportunities that come to their attention on a fair and equitable basis among the BDC and the Other Accounts for which participation in the respective opportunity is considered appropriate pro rata in proportion to the relative net worth of each such account. In determining whether participating by an account is appropriate, the Affiliated Persons shall take into account, among other considerations: (a) whether the risk-return profile of the proposed investment is consistent with the objectives of the BDC, which objectives may be considered (i) solely in light of the specific investment under consideration or (ii) in the context of the portfolio’s overall holdings and available capital; (b) the potential for the proposed investment to create an imbalance in the portfolio of the BDC; (c) liquidity requirements of the BDC; (d) potential tax consequences; (e) legal or regulatory restrictions; (f) the need to re-size risk in the portfolio of the BDC; and (g) whether the BDC and/or Other Accounts have a substantial amount of investable cash (e.g., during a “ramp-up” period). Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no assurance that an investment opportunity which comes to the attention of any of the Affiliated Persons will not be allocated to an Other Account, with the BDC being unable to participate in such investment opportunity or participating only on a limited basis. In addition, there may be circumstances under which the Affiliated Persons will consider participation by Other Accounts in investment opportunities in which the Affiliated Persons do not intend to invest, or intend to invest only on a limited basis, on behalf of the BDC. Because these considerations may differ for the BDC and the Other Accounts in the context of any particular investment opportunity, investment activities of the BDC and the Other Accounts may differ considerably from time to time.

As a result of the foregoing, the Affiliated Persons may have conflicts of interest in allocating their time and activity between the BDC and the Other Accounts, in allocating investments among the BDC and the Other Accounts and in effecting transactions for the BDC and the Other Accounts, including ones in which the Affiliated Persons may have a greater financial interest.

The BDC and the BDC Manager are not represented by separate professional advisers. The legal firm for the BDC has represented the Affiliated Persons in the past and it is anticipated that such representation will continue in the future. Without independent legal and other professional representation, investors may not receive legal and other advice regarding certain matters that might be in their interest but contrary to the interest of the Affiliated Persons. However, should a dispute arise between the BDC and any Affiliated Person, or should there be a need in the future to negotiate and prepare contracts and agreements between the BDC and any of the Affiliated Persons, other than those existing or contemplated on the date of this Memorandum, the BDC Manager will cause the BDC to retain separate counsel and, if necessary, other professionals for such matters.

VALUATION OF INVESTMENTS

The Net Asset Value of the BDC will be determined as of such times as is required by the BDC Management Agreement or as may be determined by the BDC Manager, but in any case, no less than quarterly.

Each Stockholder's share of the Net Asset Value of the BDC is determined by multiplying (i) the sum of the value of the securities held by the BDC plus any cash or other assets (including interest and dividends accrued but not yet received) minus all liabilities (including accrued expenses), by (ii) the Stockholder's Allocation Percentage.

BDC investments will generally be valued as reported in the most recent audited financial statements of such investments; provided that, where such audited financial statements are not available, such investments will be valued at fair value, which may be cost, as reasonably determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion.

The foregoing valuation guidelines may be modified by the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, if and to the extent that the BDC Manager determines that such modifications are advisable in order to reflect restrictions upon marketability or other factors affecting the value of financial assets. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the valuation of an asset by the BDC Manager may reflect the amounts invested in such asset by the BDC, or the last value the asset traded for, in a private or public market transaction by a bona fide institutional or accredited investor, notwithstanding that such amounts may or may not represent the market value of such asset.

All matters concerning the valuation of securities, the allocation of profits, gains, and losses among the Investors, and accounting procedures not specifically and expressly provided for by the terms of the BDC Management Agreement, shall be determined by the BDC Manager and shall be final and conclusive as to all of the Investors.

SPECIAL ALLOCATION PROVISIONS

Side Pocket Investments

The BDC Manager will designate BDC investments that the BDC Manager believes either lack a readily assessable market value or should be held until the resolution of a special event or circumstances (each such investment, a "Side Pocket Investment"), which will generally comprise any BDC investments. A separate bookkeeping account shall be established for each Side Pocket Investment (each a "Side Pocket Investment Account"). Each Side Pocket Investment Account shall have an initial aggregate value (the "Original Value") equal to the fair value (as determined by the BDC Manager) of the Side Pocket Investment at the time the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established (which shall generally be cost if the investment is designated as a Side Pocket Investment at the time of its acquisition).

On the date a Side Pocket Investment Account is established, each Stockholder's Capital Account shall be reduced by an amount determined by multiplying such Stockholder's Allocation Percentage as of such date by the Original Value of such investment. With respect to each Side Pocket Investment, the computation of net capital appreciation or depreciation, as the case may be, shall include only the net capital appreciation or depreciation actually realized upon a liquidation or disposition of such investment for cash or marketable securities (or upon the determination of the BDC Manager that the Side Pocket Investment should no longer be designated as such) (any such event, a "Realization Event"). Upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, the fair market value of the cash proceeds thereof shall be reallocated, at such time as the BDC Manager determines, from the Side Pocket Investment Account to the Capital Accounts of each of the Investors participating therein pro rata in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages on the date the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established and, thereafter, the Side Pocket Investment Account shall be closed out. For purposes of determining the Carried Interest, no net capital appreciation or depreciation shall be allocated to the Investors with respect to a Side Pocket Investment until such time as a Realization Event has occurred with respect to such Side Pocket Investment.

The Original Value of each Side Pocket Investment may include such reserves (including reserves for working capital and contingencies) as the BDC Manager in its discretion may consider advisable or necessary. In addition, the BDC Manager shall charge any expense relating specifically to a Side Pocket Investment to each Shareholder that has an interest in the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account in proportion to such Stockholder's Allocation Percentage as of the date such Side Pocket Investment Account was established. A Shareholder admitted to the BDC after the making of a Side Pocket Investment will have no interest in such investment.

SERVICE PROVIDERS

Auditor

The BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, may select the auditor which will complete the year-end audit for the BDC. The BDC's books of account shall be audited as of the close of each fiscal year by Drenchko Stephanie Sheradin CPA License #098780 with ZERO TO GRACE ACCOUNTING FIRM or any other independent accounting firm designated by the BDC Manager, although the BDC Manager may elect to postpone the first audit of the BDC's annual financial statements until the completion of the BDC's first full fiscal year, in which case the initial audit will cover the applicable fiscal year as well as the partial "stub" year in which the BDC commenced operations. Within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, annual reports containing audited financial statements will be sent to all BDC Investors.

Administrator

On the effective Date February 1st 2024, NAV Consulting, Inc. (the "Administrator" or "NAV") has been engaged as the administrator of the BDC pursuant to a Service Agreement entered into with the BDC (the "NAV Agreement"). The Administrator is responsible for, among other things, calculating the BDC's net asset value, performing certain other accounting, back-office, data processing, processing subscriptions, redemptions, and transfer activities of Investors in the BDC, certain anti-money laundering functions and related administrative services.

The NAV Agreement provides that the Administrator shall not be liable to the BDC, any Investor or any other person in absence of finding of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or fraud on the part of NAV. Furthermore, BDC shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrator, its affiliates, and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents and representatives (collectively, the "NAV Parties") from and against any liability, damages, claims, loss, cost or expense, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and expenses (individually, "Loss" and collectively, "Losses") arising from, related to, or in connection with the services provided to the BDC pursuant to the NAV Agreement, unless any such Losses are the direct result of the willful misconduct, gross negligence or fraud of NAV. In no event shall NAV have any liability to the BDC, any Investor or any other person or entity which seeks to recover alleged damages or losses in excess of the fees paid to NAV by the BDC in the one year preceding the occurrence of any loss, nor shall NAV be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, collateral, exemplary or punitive damages, including lost profits, revenue or data, regardless of the form of the action or the theory of recovery, even if NAV has been advised of the possibility of such damages or such damages were foreseeable. Any claim brought against NAV in connection with the NAV Agreement will be barred unless it is initiated within one year of the earlier of the disclosure of the event which is the subject of such claim or the date that the party advancing such claim knew or could with due inquiry have known of such event.

NAV shall not be liable to the BDC, any Investor or any other person for the actions or omissions of any agent, contractor, consultant or other third party performing any portion of the services under the NAV Agreement absent a finding of gross negligence or fraud on the part of NAV in appointing such agent, contractor, consultant or other third party.

NAV shall not be liable to the BDC, any Investor or any other person for actions or omissions made in reliance on instructions from the BDC or advice of legal counsel.

The services provided by NAV are purely administrative in nature. NAV has no responsibilities or obligations other than the services specifically listed in the NAV Agreement. No assumed or implied legal or fiduciary duties or services are accepted by or shall be asserted against NAV. NAV does not provide tax, legal, investment or accounting advice. NAV has no duty to communicate with Investors other than as set forth in Exhibit A of the NAV Agreement. NAV does not have custody of BDC's assets, it does not verify the existence of, nor does it perform any due diligence on the BDC's underlying investments, including, investments in or via related or affiliated entities. In connection with the payment processing functions, NAV shall not be responsible for performance of the due diligence on payment recipients other than in connection with payments for Investors' withdrawals from the BDC, which are subject to anti-money laundering review functions of the services.

The NAV Agreement also provides that it is the obligation of The BDC Manager, and not of NAV, to review, monitor or otherwise ensure compliance by the BDC with the investment policies, restrictions or guidelines applicable to it or any other term or condition of the BDC's offering documents, including, without limitation, with its valuation policy or the BDC's stated investment strategy, and with laws and regulations applicable to its activities. The BDC Manager's responsibility for the management of the BDC, including without limitation, the valuation of the BDC's assets and liabilities, including, defining and maintaining the valuation policy and for fair valuing the BDC's assets, the oversight of the services provided by NAV and the review of work product delivered by NAV shall not be affected by or limited by any of the services provided by NAV.

The NAV Agreement provides that NAV is entitled to rely on any information, including valuation information, received by NAV from the BDC, The BDC Manager or other parties, including without limitation, broker-dealers and data vendors, without independent verification, audit, review, inquiry, or performing other due diligence and NAV shall not be liable to the BDC, any Investor or any other persons for losses suffered as a result of NAV relying on incorrect information. NAV has no responsibility to review, independently value, verify, compare to other pricing sources or otherwise perform due diligence on the valuation information. NAV may accept such information as accurate and complete without independent verification. Furthermore, NAV shall not be liable to the BDC, any Investor or any other person for any loss incurred as a result of an error or inaccuracy of any valuation information received from the BDC or from any pricing or valuation service or data service provider or delay, interruption in service or failure to perform of any pricing or valuation service or data service provider used by NAV.

Where the BDC makes investments via related entities, to produce net asset value calculation, NAV will use the valuation information of such intermediate, related entities. The valuation information of the intermediate, related entities may be provided by the BDC's manager or the manager of the intermediate, related entities. NAV is not responsible for performing any due diligence on any of the BDC's investments, including, the intermediate, related entities and for verifying the existence of the end investments. The BDC is responsible for the completeness of records, documents and information provided to NAV to perform the Services.

The BDC acknowledges the challenges in performing Services for investments in cryptocurrency due to the nature of this asset class, including its anonymity and opacity among other factors. Due to these factors and the fact that cryptocurrency is in the early stages in its life, NAV may not have independent access to information in the same manner as it does for traditional assets and has to rely on the information provided by the management of the BDC.

The BDC agrees that NAV has no responsibility to verify, confirm or validate the existence, ownership or control of any cryptocurrency asset held by the BDC. To determine BDC's positions in cryptocurrency in connection with the Services, NAV will rely on The BDC Manager representations about said positions. The representation by The BDC Manager NAV is entitled to rely on, includes, without limitation, the position information of: 1. cryptocurrency held in cold wallet, in the BDC's exchange account, or in the BDC's account with cryptocurrency custodian, 2. the initial coin offerings ("ICOs"), 3. cryptocurrency traded over-the-counter, 4. cryptocurrency received due to forks, airdrops or similar transactions, and 5. cryptocurrency acquired from BDC's mining. If the BDC holds the cryptocurrency in cold wallet, NAV may confirm the amount of cryptocurrency reported on the respective blockchain for the public key of the BDC, provided that given cryptocurrency has a public blockchain and a public key to such blockchain was given by the BDC or its BDC's management to NAV. Having said that, the BDC acknowledges that it is not possible for NAV to determine whether a public key belongs to the BDC. Provided that NAV receives read only access or read only API access, NAV may also confirm BDC's holdings based on the information apparent via such read only access or read only API access to the BDC's exchange accounts or BDC's accounts hosted by cryptocurrency custodians. Having said that, the BDC acknowledges that it is not possible for NAV to determine whether the API key belongs to the BDC. Shall the BDC engage in investing in the ICOs, the holdings in the ICOs and pre-sales may not be visible to NAV between the time of funding and the closing of the ICO. Accordingly, to perform the Services, for the holdings in the ICOs and pre-sales, NAV will rely solely on The BDC Manager representations regarding said positions. NAV may rely on the trade confirmations received from The BDC Manager's and other counterparties for the OTC transactions. Shall the BDC engage in mining of cryptocurrency, NAV will not independently verify or otherwise perform any due diligence to determine that the cryptocurrencies acquired from mining were actually obtained as a result of BDC's mining activity and not from any other source. The BDC may receive assets due to forks, airdrop or similar transactions. NAV will not verify these transactions independently but will rely solely on the information provided by the BDC Manager for these transactions. NAV may include in the BDC's net asset value assets due to forks, airdrops and similar transactions based on The BDC Manager representations, even though, these assets may not be reported by the exchanges in the BDC's exchange accounts or wallets. The assets due to forks, airdrops and similar transactions may be allocated to the BDC's exchange or wallet accounts with delays, however, there is a possibility that the BDC may not receive these assets during the BDC's lifetime. The BDC acknowledges and agrees that NAV will not be required to independently ascertain, confirm nor verify the accuracy of the representations, confirmations and other information relied on by NAV discussed in this paragraph in performing the Services. NAV shall not be liable to the BDC, Investors or any other persons for losses suffered as a result of NAV's reliance on the aforementioned representations and other information relied.

The BDC acknowledges challenges in obtaining valuation information for digital assets. To provide the Services, NAV will rely on prices published by the cryptocurrency exchanges. Each cryptocurrency may be traded on various cryptocurrency exchanges and there may be significant variations between the prices of the same cryptocurrency traded on different cryptocurrency exchanges. NAV will rely on The BDC Manager to select the exchange to be used as a source for valuation of each cryptocurrency and to decide what valuation point to use. Before being listed on an exchange, any ICOs and cryptocurrency acquired from BDC's mining activities will be priced at cost or fair value as determined by The BDC Manager. The cost of mining shall be determined by The BDC Manager. The BDC acknowledges and agrees that NAV has no responsibility to independently verify or otherwise perform any due diligence on the cost of mining valuations. Once an ICO is listed on an exchange, NAV will rely on The BDC Manager to select the source exchange and will use the prices published on that exchange. The BDC acknowledges and agrees that NAV has no responsibility to review, independently value, verify, compare to other pricing sources or otherwise perform due diligence on the cryptocurrency valuation information and makes no representations or warranties with respect to its accuracy. The BDC agrees that it is the responsibility of the BDC Manager of the BDC, and not NAV, to verify whether the exchanges selected by The BDC Manager as a valuation source or used for trading are operating lawfully, including, whether they are required to be registered with a regulator or whether they are registered.

The Service Agreement provides that the Services, including the anti-money laundering services provided by NAV, do not encompass monitoring of BDC's trading activity for the purposes of detecting or preventing money laundering. NAV Consulting, Inc. is not responsible for monitoring transactions effected by The BDC Manager to ensure compliance with the applicable AML laws and regulations. NAV Consulting, Inc. does not monitor BDC's trading activities for the purposes of assuring compliance with OFAC Sanctions programs. For avoidance of doubt, for the purposes of this paragraph, trading shall include acquisition of cryptocurrency from mining, forks, airdrop and similar transactions or participating in an ICO. In addition, shall the BDC accept the payments for subscriptions or redemptions in-kind in cryptocurrency, the BDC acknowledges that NAV is not able to confirm, verify, or ascertain the source of in-kind payments in cryptocurrency due to the anonymity of cryptocurrency and the BDC agrees that NAV shall not be responsible for monitoring such transactions for the purposes of detecting or preventing money laundering.

The information on investor statements and other reports produced by NAV shall not be considered an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any interest in the BDC, nor may it be used to induce or recommend the purchase or holding of any interest in the BDC.

The NAV Agreement bars non-parties from asserting third party beneficiary claims against NAV.

The BDC pays NAV fees out of the BDC's assets, generally based upon the size of the BDC, in accordance with NAV's standard schedule for providing similar services, subject to a monthly minimum.

Either party may terminate the NAV Agreement on 180 days' prior written notice as well as on the occurrence of certain events.

Investors may review the NAV Agreements by contacting the BDC; provided, that NAV reserves the right not to disclose the fees payable thereunder.

NAV is not responsible for the preparation of this Confidential Memorandum or the activities of the BDC and therefore accepts no responsibility for any information contained in any other section of this Confidential Memorandum.

In order to satisfy the criteria for an “accredited investor,” in the case of individuals, an investor must have either (i) an annual income of not less than $200,000 for each of the previous two years (or a combined income with such person’s spouse of not less than $300,000), and reasonably anticipate the same level of income for the current year, or (ii) a net worth in excess of $1,000,000 (excluding the value of such person’s home). Other types of accredited investors permitted to invest in the BDC include (i) banks or savings and loan associations acting in an individual or fiduciary capacity, (ii) broker-dealers registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (iii) insurance companies, (iv) any trust, with total assets in excess of $5,000,000, not formed for the specific purpose of making the investment, whose purchase is directed by a sophisticated person as described in Rule 506(b)(2)(ii) of Regulation D, and (v) a corporation, business trust or BDC not formed for the purpose of making the investment (x) which has total assets in excess of $5,000,000, or (y) in which all of the equity owners are accredited investors.

Employee benefit plans and individual retirement accounts (“IRAs”) will qualify as accredited investors if either (i) the investment decision is made by a plan fiduciary which is a bank, savings and loan association, insurance company or investment adviser registered under the Advisers Act, (ii) the plan, including plans established by a state or its political subdivisions or any agency or instrumentality of a state or its political subdivisions for the benefit of employees, has total assets in excess of $5,000,000, or (iii) the plan is a self-directed plan with investment decisions made solely by persons who are accredited investors. Foundations, endowments and other tax-exempt investors must not be formed for the purpose of investing in the BDC and must have total assets in excess of $5,000,000. Other types of accredited investors include (i) any investment company registered under the Investment Company Act or a business development company as defined in Section 2(a)(48) of that Act; (ii) any Small Business Investment Company licensed by the U.S. Small Business Administration under Section 301(c) or (d) of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958; (iii) any private business development company as defined in Section 202(a)(22) of the Advisers Act; or (iv) any entity in which all of the equity owners are accredited investors.

The BDC reserves the right to reject subscriptions in its sole discretion. Each purchaser will be required to represent that such purchaser’s overall commitment to investments which are not readily marketable is not disproportionate to such purchaser’s net worth, and that such purchaser’s investment in the BDC will not cause such overall commitment to become excessive; that such purchaser can sustain a complete loss of such purchaser’s investment in the BDC and has no need for liquidity in such purchaser’s investment in the BDC; and that such purchaser has evaluated the risks of investing in the BDC.

BDC Investors may not be able to liquidate their investment in the event of an emergency or for any other reason because there is not now any public market for the Stock, and none is expected to develop.

The BDC will not be registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, in reliance on Section 3(c)(1) thereof. As a Section 3(c)(1) BDC, the BDC may offer Shares in a private placement and may have no more than one hundred (100) beneficial owners. The Stock therefore may not be resold except in a transaction registered under the Securities Act and the laws of certain states or in a transaction exempt from such registration. (See “Restrictions on Transfer of Shares.”)

Investors who reside in certain states may be required to meet standards different from or in addition to those described above. Investors will be required to represent in writing that they meet any such standards that may be applicable to them. The BDC Manager may, without the consent of the existing BDC Investors, admit new Investors to the BDC. The BDC Manager may reject a subscription for an Interest for any reason in its sole and absolute discretion. If a subscription is rejected, the payment remitted by the Investor will be returned without interest.

EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD CONSIDER WHETHER THE PURCHASE OF THE SECURITIES OFFERED HEREBY IS SUITABLE FOR HIM OR HER IN LIGHT OF HIS OR HER INDIVIDUAL INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES.

FEDERAL TAX ASPECTS

CIRCULAR 230 NOTICE. THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON THE U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE: (1) ANY U.S. FEDERAL TAX ADVICE CONTAINED HEREIN, INCLUDING ANY OPINION OF COUNSEL REFERRED TO HEREIN, IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED, BY ANY TAXPAYER FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING U.S. FEDERAL TAX PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON THE TAXPAYER; (2) ANY SUCH ADVICE IS WRITTEN TO SUPPORT THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE TRANSACTIONS DESCRIBED HEREIN (OR IN ANY SUCH OPINION OF COUNSEL); AND (3) EACH TAXPAYER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON THE TAXPAYER'S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISER.

The following material describes certain Federal income tax aspects of an investment in the BDC. No consideration has been given to state and local income tax consequences. This summary provides only a general discussion and does not represent a complete analysis of all income tax consequences of an investment in the BDC, many of which may depend on individual circumstances, such as the residence or domicile of a Shareholder. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined will have the same meaning set forth in the BDC Management Agreement.

The summary is based on the Code, the regulations thereunder (the "Regulations") and judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, all as of the date of this Memorandum. No assurance can be given that future legislation, Regulations, administrative pronouncements and/or court decisions will not significantly change applicable law and materially affect the conclusions expressed herein. Any such change, even though made after a Shareholder has invested in the BDC, could be applied retroactively. Moreover, the effects of any state, local or foreign tax law, or of federal tax law other than income tax law, are not addressed in these discussions and, therefore, must be evaluated independently by each prospective investor.

No ruling has been requested from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or any other federal, state or local agency with respect to the matters discussed below; nor has the BDC Manager asked its counsel to render any legal opinions regarding any of the matters discussed below. This summary does not in any way either bind the IRS or the courts or constitute an assurance that the income tax consequences discussed herein will be accepted by the IRS, any other federal, state or local agency or the courts. The BDC is not intended and should not be expected to provide any tax shelter.

THIS SUMMARY IS INCLUDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY. NOTHING HEREIN IS OR SHOULD BE CONSTRUED AS LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE TO ANY INVESTOR. EACH PROSPECTIVE SHAREHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT SUCH STOCKHOLDER'S PERSONAL TAX ADVISOR WITH RESPECT TO THE STATE AND FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF HIS PARTICIPATION AS A SHAREHOLDER IN THE BDC.

BDC Status

The Federal income tax consequences to the BDC and its Investors will depend primarily upon the characterization of the BDC as a BDC for Federal income tax purposes rather than as a corporation. If the BDC were treated as a corporation for Federal income tax purposes, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit would be those of the corporation and would not be passed through to the Investors, and distributions to Investors would be treated as dividends to the extent of current and accumulated earnings and profits. The BDC Manager has not requested, nor does it intend to request, a private letter ruling from the IRS that for Federal income tax purposes, the BDC will be treated as a BDC and not as an association taxable as a corporation.

Recently issued Treasury Regulations provide a default classification as a BDC for Federal tax purposes for any entity formed after 1996 as a BDC under state law. Such an entity may elect to be treated as a corporation for Federal tax purposes. The BDC was formed as A Florida Business Development Company and does not intend to elect to be treated as a corporation for federal tax purposes. Accordingly, the BDC will be classified as a BDC for federal tax purposes.

A BDC is not a taxable entity subject to Federal income tax. Accordingly, the BDC will report its operations for each calendar year and annually will file a United States BDC return of income. Each individual Shareholder should report on his tax return his distributive share of the BDC's income, loss, deductions, and credits, if any, for the taxable year of the BDC ending within or with his taxable year. Each Stockholder's distributive share of such items is determined in accordance with his allocable share of Net Profit and Net Loss as provided in Article III of the BDC Management Agreement. As soon as reasonably practicable following the end of the taxable year of the BDC, the BDC will provide each Shareholder with reports showing the items of income, gain, loss, deductions, or credits allocated to the Shareholder for use in the preparation of the tax return. It should be noted that a Shareholder may recognize taxable income attributable to his BDC Interest without receiving any cash distribution with which to pay the taxes thereon.

Publicly Traded BDC Status. Under the Code, a “publicly traded BDC” (“PTP”) generally is treated as a corporation. A BDC is a publicly traded BDC if Shares therein (1) are traded on an established securities market (as defined under the applicable Regulations (“PTP Regulations”)) or (2) are readily tradable on a secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof) (“readily tradable”). The Shares will not be listed for trading on an established securities market, and the BDC will use its best efforts to ensure that its Shares will not be readily tradable.

The PTP Regulations include a “private placement safe harbor” under which Stock can avoid being treated as readily tradable. The PTP Regulations provide that this safe harbor applies if (1) the Stock were issued in a transaction or transactions not requiring registration under the Securities Act and (2) the BDC has no more than 100 Investors.

For purposes of determining the number of Investors, a person owning a BDC interest through a BDC, grantor trust or S corporation (a “flow-through entity”) is counted as a Shareholder only if substantially all the value of that person’s interest in the flow-through entity is attributable to the underlying BDC and a principal purpose for using a tiered structure was to satisfy the 100-Shareholder condition. Because the offering of Shares is not required to be registered under the Securities Act, if the BDC has no more than 100 BDC Investors (as determined in accordance with the rules regarding “flow-through” entities noted above), the BDC will meet this “private placement safe harbor” and thus should not be treated as a publicly traded BDC for federal tax purposes. The BDC Management Agreement of the BDC restricts the total number of BDC Investors to 100 (as determined in accordance with the rules regarding “flow-through” entities). Thus, the BDC should qualify for the “private placement safe harbor.”

Taxation of Operations

The tax consequences to investors of the BDC’s trading activities in securities are very complex. Prospective investors should consult with tax advisers who have substantial expertise with this aspect of the tax law.

Gains and Losses from Securities Transactions. The BDC expects to deal with its securities as a trader or investor (generally, a person that buys and sells securities for its own account for purposes of investment) and not as a dealer (generally, a person that buys from and sells securities to customers with a view to the gains from those transactions). Accordingly, except as discussed below (see “Market Discount”) and absent an election under Section 475(f) of the Code (discussed below), the BDC generally expects that gains and losses recognized on the sale of its securities will be capital gains and losses, which will be long-term or short-term depending, in general, on the length of time it held the securities and, in some cases, the nature of the transactions. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not determine that, for tax purposes, the BDC is a dealer (or should for other reasons be comparably treated). In the event the IRS were to prevail on this issue, transactions which would otherwise have received capital gain or loss treatment may result in ordinary income or loss being recognized by a Shareholder.

Gains from property held for more than one year generally will be eligible for favorable tax treatment. As of the date of this Memorandum, the maximum Federal income tax rate applicable to a noncorporate taxpayer’s net capital gain (the excess of net long-term capital gain over net short-term capital loss) recognized on the sale or exchange of capital assets held for more than one year is 20%. Tax rates are subject to change.

Gain or loss from the disposition of securities generally is considered for tax purposes only when realized. However, a taxpayer that is engaged in a trade or business as a trader in securities (defined to include, among other instruments, corporate stock, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness, certain notional principal contracts and Shares and derivative financial instruments in any of the foregoing or a currency, including any option, futures contract, forward contract, short position and similar financial instrument in such a security or currency) may elect under Section 475(f) of the Code to “mark to market” the securities it holds at the end of each taxable year (that is, to recognize gain or loss with respect to those securities as if the trader sold them for their fair market value on the last business day of the year). The BDC does not intend to make this “mark to market” election, but may do so if deemed, in the BDC Manager’s sole discretion, to be in the best interest of the BDC. If it were to do so, the election would apply to the year in which it is made and all subsequent taxable years and to all securities held in connection with the trader’s trade or business. A mark-to-market election cannot be revoked without the consent of the IRS. Any gain or loss recognized pursuant to the election would be treated as ordinary income or loss.

Constructive Sales. If the BDC has an “appreciated financial position” – generally, an interest (including an interest through an option, futures contract, forward contract or short sale) with respect to any stock, debt instrument (other than “straight debt”) or BDC interest the fair market value of which exceeds its adjusted basis – and enters into a “constructive sale” of the position, it will be treated as having made an actual sale thereof, with the result that gain will be recognized at that time. A constructive sale generally consists of a short sale, an offsetting notional principal contract, a futures contract or a forward contract entered into by the BDC or a related person with respect to the same or substantially identical property. In addition, if the appreciated financial position is itself such a short sale or such a contract, acquisition of the underlying property or substantially identical property will be deemed a constructive sale. In general, however, a transaction will not be considered a constructive sale if it is closed by the BDC within 30 days after the end of the taxable year in which it was originally entered into and the BDC holds the related appreciated financial position unhedged for 60 days after that closing (i.e., at no time during that 60-day period is the BDC’s risk of loss regarding that position reduced by reason of certain specified transactions with respect to substantially identical or related property, such as having an option to sell, being contractually obligated to sell, making a short sale or granting an option to buy substantially identical stock or securities).

Original Issue Discount. The BDC may acquire certain debt instruments that are subject to the original issue discount (“OID”) rules of Section 1272 of the Code. A debt instrument subject to such rules (which apply to most debt instruments) is treated as having OID if its “stated redemption price at maturity” exceeds its “issue price” by more than a de minimis amount. Generally, the stated redemption price of a debt instrument includes all amounts payable other than “qualified stated interest” (i.e., payments that are unconditionally required to be paid at least annually at a single fixed rate over the term of the instrument). Thus, if and to the extent the BDC acquires debt instruments bearing OID, the BDC (and, therefore, its BDC Investors) would be required to include in ordinary income OID, based on a constant yield method, before the receipt of cash attributable to such income, regardless of the BDC’s regular method of accounting. OID accrues daily in accordance with a constant yield method based on a compounding of interest. The OID allocable to any accrual period will be equal to the product of the adjusted issue price of the debt instrument as of the beginning of such period and the yield to maturity of the debt instrument. In the case of debt instruments acquired by the BDC at their original issue, the adjusted issue price of the debt instrument as of the beginning of any accrual period will equal its issue price to the BDC, increased by the amount of OID previously included in the gross income of the BDC and decreased by the amount of any payments made to the BDC on the debt instruments. If, on the other hand, the BDC acquires debt instruments bearing OID subsequent to their original issuance, the BDC will also be required to include OID in income, but the inclusion thereof may vary depending on the price paid by the BDC for such debt instruments. If the BDC purchases a debt instrument at less than its adjusted issue price, the BDC will have market discount in addition to the remaining OID on such debt instrument (see “Market Discount”). If the price paid by the BDC exceeds such adjusted issue price but is less than the stated redemption price at maturity, the BDC will have acquisition premium equal to such excess and may offset OID accruals by the amortization of such acquisition premium. If the price paid by the BDC for a debt instrument exceeds its stated redemption price at maturity, the BDC may elect to amortize such excess under rules relating to acquisition premium.

Market Discount. If the BDC purchases, subsequent to its original issuance, a debt instrument for a price that is less than its adjusted issue price, the BDC (and, therefore, its BDC Investors) may be subject to the rules relating to accrued market discount. Generally, any gain recognized by the BDC upon a sale or other disposition of a debt instrument will be treated as ordinary income rather than capital gain to the extent of that portion of the market discount that accrued prior to such disposition. Market discount generally accrues on a straight-line basis over the remaining term of a debt instrument, but the holder can elect to compute accrued market discount based on the economic yield of the debt instrument. If the BDC’s purchase is debt-financed, the BDC will not be entitled to deduct interest expense allocable to accrued market discount until it recognizes the corresponding income. However, the BDC may elect to include the market discount in income as it accrues. If this election is made, any gain recognized on a disposition of the debt instrument would be entirely capital gain and the rules deferring the deduction of interest expense on related loans would not apply.

Organization Expenditures. Sec. 902(c)(2) of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 amended IRC Code Section 709(b) regarding the deduction of Organizational Expenses. This amendment allows the BDC to deduct up to $5,000 of organization expenditures, reduced by the amount by which the expenditures exceed $50,000, for the year in which the BDC begins operations. The remainder of the Organizational Expenses are deducted ratably over the 180-month period beginning with the month in which the BDC begins operations. Accordingly, although the BDC may amortize its Organizational Expenses over a 60 month period, the deductibility of such expenses by a Shareholder for federal income tax purposes will be limited.

Foreign Withholding. Income received by the BDC from sources within non-U.S. countries may be subject to withholding and other taxes imposed by such countries. Each Shareholder may be entitled either to deduct (as an itemized deduction) his or her proportionate share of the non-U.S. taxes of the BDC in computing his or her taxable income or to use the amount as a foreign tax credit against his or her U.S. federal income tax liability, subject to limitations. Generally, a credit for non-U.S. taxes is subject to the limitation that it may not exceed the taxpayer's U.S. tax attributable to his or her non-U.S. source taxable income. With respect to Investors who are U.S. Persons (as defined herein), certain currency fluctuation gains, including fluctuation gains from non-U.S.-dollar-denominated debt securities, receivables and payables, will be treated as ordinary income derived from U.S. sources; BDC gains from the sale of securities also will be treated as derived from U.S. sources. The limitation on the foreign tax credit is applied separately to non-U.S. source passive income (as defined for purposes of the foreign tax credit), including the non-U.S. source passive income realized by the BDC. The foreign tax credit limitation rules do not apply to certain electing individual taxpayers who have limited creditable non-U.S. taxes and no non-U.S. source income other than passive investment-type income. The foreign tax credit generally is eliminated with respect to non-U.S. taxes withheld on income and gain if the BDC fails to satisfy minimum holding period requirements with respect to the property giving rise to the income and gain.

Disallowance of Certain Itemized Deductions

The BDC will be required each year to make the determination as to whether it will take the position for Federal income tax purposes that it is (i) a trader in securities or (ii) an investor in securities. This determination will be made separately each year based primarily on the level of the BDC's securities activities during the particular year. Accordingly, the BDC's status as a trader or an investor may vary from year to year and is difficult to predict in advance. If the BDC is characterized as a trader, each Shareholder who is an individual may deduct his share of the expenses of the BDC (other than interest expense, but including the Management Fee) under Code Section 162 as a business expense. Alternatively, if the BDC is characterized as an investor, the expenses of the BDC (other than interest expense, but including the Management Fee) would constitute "miscellaneous itemized deductions", and as such, would be deductible by an individual only to the extent that his share of such expenses, when combined with his other "miscellaneous itemized deductions", exceeds 2% of his adjusted gross income. Further, the amount in excess of such 2% floor would be subject to the overall limitation on itemized deductions imposed by Code Section 68. In addition, the amount in excess of such 2% floor would be considered a tax preference item in computing the alternative minimum tax for an individual taxpayer.

The BDC may also take a more aggressive tax position than a Shareholder might. Should the IRS disallow any such position, Investors could be audited and required to pay back taxes, interest and perhaps penalties. Under the Code, neither interest nor any penalties incurred in such circumstances would be deductible. Further, the Code provides for centralized resolution of tax disputes where BDCs are involved. As a result, the resolution of tax disputes affecting Investors' returns may ultimately be controlled by the BDC Manager. Any audit activity at the BDC level could also result in the audit of individual Investors' returns with respect to items unrelated to the BDC's activities.

Allocation of Income, Deductions, or Loss

Section 704(b) of the Code honors allocations of profits and losses as set forth in BDC Management Agreements provided that such allocations have "substantial economic effect." The BDC Manager believes that the allocations provided for by the BDC Management Agreement have substantial economic effect. However, if an allocation is determined not to have "substantial economic effect", a Stockholder's allocable share of the item or items involved must be determined on the basis of the Stockholder's Interest in the BDC after taking into account all the facts and circumstances. No assurance can be given that the IRS will not challenge the allocation of income, gain, loss, deductions or credits contained in the BDC Management Agreement, or in modifications to the BDC Management Agreement. If such a challenge is made, no assurance can be given that a court will uphold the allocations so made.

Tax Elections

The Code generally provides for optional adjustments to the basis of BDC property upon distributions of BDC property to a Shareholder and transfers of Stock (including by reason of death) provided that a BDC election has been made pursuant to Section 754. Under the BDC Management Agreement, the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, may cause the BDC to make such an election. Any such election, once made, cannot be revoked without the IRS's consent. As a result of the complexity and added expense of the tax accounting required to implement such an election, the BDC Manager presently does not intend to make such election.

Mandatory Basis Adjustments

The BDC is generally required to adjust its tax basis in its assets in respect of all Investors in cases of BDC distributions that result in a “substantial basis reduction” (i.e., in excess of $250,000) in respect of the BDC’s property. The BDC is also required to adjust its tax basis in its assets in respect of a transferee, in the case of a sale or exchange of an interest, or a transfer upon death, when there exists a “substantial built-in loss” (i.e., in excess of $250,000) in respect of BDC property immediately after the transfer. For this reason, the BDC will require (i) a Shareholder who receives a distribution from the BDC in connection with a complete withdrawal, (ii) a transferee of an Interest (including a transferee in case of death) and (iii) any other Shareholder in appropriate circumstances to provide the BDC with information regarding its adjusted tax basis in its Interest.

Alternative Minimum Tax

The extent, if any, to which the federal alternative minimum tax will be imposed on any Shareholder, will depend on the Stockholder’s overall tax situation for the taxable year. Prospective investors should consult with their tax advisers regarding the alternative minimum tax consequences of an investment in the BDC.

General Rules Applicable to Tax-Exempt Organizations

A tax-exempt organization generally is exempt from Federal income tax on its passive investment income, such as dividends, interest, and capital gains, whether realized by the organization directly or indirectly through a BDC in which it is a Shareholder. (Tax-exempt organizations which are private foundations currently are subject to a 2% tax on their “net investment income.”)

The general exemption from tax afforded to tax-exempt organizations does not apply to their “unrelated business taxable income” (“UBTI”). A type of UBTI is income or gain derived directly or through a BDC from “debt-financed property”, which is any income-producing property with respect to which there is “acquisition indebtedness” at any time during the taxable year. Gain from the sale or exchange of, and derived from, debt-financed property generally is taxable in the proportion in which the property is financed by “acquisition indebtedness.” The BDC Management Agreement allows the BDC to incur indebtedness (through the purchase of securities on margin and otherwise). Tax-exempt organizations which are Investors will be subject to Federal income tax on such portion of their income from the BDC that is considered to be UBTI.

There are special considerations which should be taken into account by certain beneficiaries of charitable remainder trusts that invest in the BDC. Charitable remainder trusts should consult their own tax advisers concerning the tax consequences of such an investment on their beneficiaries. In particular, a charitable remainder trust will not be exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 664(c) for any year in which it has UBTI. Moreover, the charitable contribution deduction for a trust under Code Section 642(c) may be limited for any year in which the trust has UBTI.

Passive Activity Losses

The Code restricts the deductibility of losses from a “passive activity” against certain income which is not derived from a passive activity. This restriction applies to individuals, estates or trusts, personal service corporations and certain closely-held corporations. Pursuant to Temp. Treas. Reg. §1.469-1T(e)(6)(i), however, the activity of trading personal property for the account of owners of Shares in the activity is not a passive activity. Moreover, an example issued pursuant to such regulation expressly provides a BDC is not engaged in a passive activity if its activities consist of trading stocks, bonds, and other securities where the capital employed by the BDC consists of amounts contributed by the Investors in exchange for their Stock and BDCs borrowed by the BDC. Therefore, to the extent the BDC limits its activities to trading stocks, bonds, and other securities, the income or loss allocated to a Shareholder will not constitute passive income or passive loss. Consequently, any income allocated to a Shareholder will be portfolio income which cannot be used to shelter passive losses from a Stockholder’s other investments.

Distributions

A distribution by a BDC to a Shareholder generally is not taxable to the Shareholder except to the extent the distribution consists of cash (and, in certain circumstances, marketable securities) and exceeds the Stockholder’s adjusted basis of its interest in the BDC immediately before the distribution. A Shareholder who receives a distribution of property other than cash may recognize gain if such Shareholder contributed appreciated property (other than the property being distributed) to the BDC within seven years before the distribution. In addition, a Shareholder who has contributed appreciated property to a BDC may recognize gain if such property is distributed to another Shareholder within seven years after the property was contributed. Ordinarily, any such excess will be treated as gain from a sale or exchange of the Stockholder’s interest. However, the BDC does not generally intend to make distributions to its BDC Investors.

Sale of Interest

A Shareholder receiving a cash liquidating distribution from the BDC, in connection with a complete withdrawal from the BDC generally will recognize capital gain or loss to the extent of the difference between the proceeds received by such Shareholder and such Stockholder's adjusted tax basis in its BDC Interest. Such capital gain or loss will be short-term or long-term depending upon the Stockholder's holding period for its interest in the BDC. However, a withdrawing Shareholder will recognize ordinary income to the extent such Stockholder's allocable share of the BDC's "unrealized receivables" exceeds the Stockholder's basis in such unrealized receivables, as determined pursuant to the Regulations. For these purposes, accrued but untaxed market discount, if any, on securities held by the BDC will be treated as an unrealized receivable with respect to the withdrawing Shareholder.

As discussed above, the BDC Management Agreement provides that the BDC Manager may specially allocate items of BDC capital gain or loss, including short-term capital gain or loss, to a withdrawing Shareholder to the extent its liquidating distribution would otherwise exceed its adjusted tax basis in its BDC interest. Such a special allocation may result in the withdrawing Shareholder recognizing capital gain or loss, which may include short-term gain or loss, in the Stockholder's last taxable year in the BDC, thereby reducing the amount of long-term capital gain or capital loss recognized during the tax year in which it receives its liquidating distribution upon withdrawal.

Except as provided below, distributions of property other than cash, whether in complete or partial liquidation of a Stockholder's interest in the BDC, generally will not result in the recognition of taxable income or loss to the Shareholder, except to the extent such distribution is treated as made in exchange for such Stockholder's share of the BDC's unrealized receivables. Gain generally must be recognized where the distribution consists of marketable securities unless the distributing BDC is an "investment BDC" and the recipient is an "eligible Shareholder" as defined in Code Section 731(c). While there can be no assurance, it is anticipated that the BDC will qualify as an "investment BDC." Thus, if a Shareholder is an "eligible Shareholder," which term should include a Shareholder whose sole contributions to the BDC consisted of cash, the non-recognition rule described above should apply.

Audit of Tax Returns

The IRS is applying greater scrutiny to a proper application of the tax laws to BDCs. An audit of the BDC's information returns may precipitate an audit of the income tax returns of the BDC Investors. Any expense involved in an audit of a Stockholder's return must be borne by the Shareholder. If the IRS successfully asserts an adjustment of any item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit reported on a BDC information return, corresponding adjustments will be made to the income tax returns of the BDC Investors. Further, any audit might result in the IRS making adjustments to items of non-BDC income or loss. If a tax deficiency is determined, the taxpayer is liable for interest on the deficiency from the due date of the return and possible penalties.

In general, the tax treatment of items of BDC income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit is to be determined at the BDC level in a unified BDC proceeding, rather than in separate proceedings with the Investors. Generally, the "tax matters Shareholder" ("TMP") would represent the BDC before the IRS and may enter into a settlement with the IRS as to the BDC tax issues, which generally will be binding on all the Investors. Similarly, only one judicial proceeding contesting an IRS determination may be filed on behalf of a BDC and all Investors. The TMP may consent to an extension of the statute of limitations for all Investors with respect to BDC items. The BDC has designated the BDC Manager as the TMP.

Tax Shelter Disclosure

Certain rules require taxpayers to disclose -- on their Federal income tax returns and, under certain circumstances, separately to the Office of Tax Shelter Analysis -- their participation in "reportable transactions" and require "material advisors" to maintain investor lists with respect thereto. These rules apply to a broad range of transactions, including transactions that would not ordinarily be viewed as tax shelters, and to indirect participation in a reportable transaction (such as through a BDC). For example, a Shareholder that is an individual will be required to disclose a tax loss resulting from the sale or exchange of his or her Interest under Code Section 741 if the loss exceeds $2 million in any single taxable year or $4 million in the taxable year in which the transaction is entered into and the five succeeding taxable years -- those thresholds are $10 and $20 million, respectively, for BDC Investors that are C corporations and $50,000 in any single taxable year for individuals and trusts, either directly or through a pass-through entity, such as the BDC, from foreign currency transactions. Losses are adjusted for any insurance or other compensation received but determined without taking into account offsetting gains or other income or limitations on deductibility. Prospective investors are urged to consult with their own tax advisers with respect to the regulations' effect on an investment in the BDC.

State and Local Taxation

In addition to the Federal income tax considerations summarized above, prospective investors should consider potential state and local tax consequences of an investment in Shares. A Stockholder's distributive share of the BDC's taxable income or loss generally will be required to be included in determining the Stockholder's taxable income for state and local tax purposes in the jurisdiction in which it is resident. However, state and local laws may differ from the Federal income tax law with respect to the treatment of specific items of income, gain, loss, and deduction.

ERISA CONSIDERATIONS

CIRCULAR 230 NOTICE. THE FOLLOWING NOTICE IS BASED ON U.S. TREASURY REGULATIONS GOVERNING PRACTICE BEFORE THE U.S. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE: (1) ANY U.S. FEDERAL TAX ADVICE CONTAINED HEREIN, INCLUDING ANY OPINION OF COUNSEL REFERRED TO HEREIN, IS NOT INTENDED OR WRITTEN TO BE USED, AND CANNOT BE USED, BY ANY TAXPAYER FOR THE PURPOSE OF AVOIDING U.S. FEDERAL TAX PENALTIES THAT MAY BE IMPOSED ON THE TAXPAYER; (2) ANY SUCH ADVICE IS WRITTEN TO SUPPORT THE PROMOTION OR MARKETING OF THE TRANSACTIONS DESCRIBED HEREIN (OR IN ANY SUCH OPINION OF COUNSEL); AND (3) EACH TAXPAYER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON THE TAXPAYER'S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARY OF CERTAIN ASPECTS OF ERISA IS BASED UPON ERISA, JUDICIAL DECISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF LABOR REGULATIONS AND RULINGS IN EXISTENCE ON THE DATE HEREOF. THIS SUMMARY IS GENERAL IN NATURE AND DOES NOT ADDRESS EVERY ERISA ISSUE THAT MAY BE APPLICABLE TO THE BDC OR A PARTICULAR INVESTOR. ACCORDINGLY, EACH PROSPECTIVE INVESTOR SHOULD CONSULT WITH ITS OWN COUNSEL IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND THE ERISA ISSUES AFFECTING THE BDC AND THE INVESTOR.

General

Persons who are fiduciaries with respect to a U.S. employee benefit plan or trust within the meaning of and subject to the provisions of ERISA (an "ERISA Plan"), an individual retirement account or a Keogh plan subject solely to the provisions of the Code¹ (an "Individual Retirement BDC") should consider, among other things, the matters described below before determining whether to invest in the BDC. ERISA imposes certain general and specific responsibilities on persons who are fiduciaries with respect to an ERISA Plan, including prudence, diversification, avoidance of prohibited transactions and compliance with other standards. In determining whether a particular investment is appropriate for an ERISA Plan, U.S. Department of Labor ("DOL") regulations provide that a fiduciary of an ERISA Plan must give appropriate consideration to, among other things, the role that the investment plays in the ERISA Plan's portfolio, taking into consideration whether the investment is designed reasonably to further the ERISA Plan's purposes, the risk and return factors of the potential investment, the portfolio's composition with regard to diversification, the liquidity and current return of the total portfolio relative to the anticipated cash flow needs of the ERISA Plan, the projected return of the total portfolio relative to the ERISA Plan's objectives, and the limitation on the rights of BDC Investors to withdraw all or any part of their Shares or to transfer their Shares. Before investing the assets of an ERISA Plan in the BDC, a fiduciary should determine whether such an investment is consistent with its fiduciary responsibilities and the foregoing regulations. For example, a fiduciary should consider whether an investment in the BDC may be too illiquid or too speculative for a particular ERISA Plan and whether the assets of the ERISA Plan would be sufficiently diversified. If a fiduciary with respect to any such ERISA Plan breaches its responsibilities with regard to selecting an investment or an investment course of action for such ERISA Plan, the fiduciary may be held personally liable for losses incurred by the ERISA Plan as a result of such breach.

Plan Assets Defined

ERISA and applicable DOL regulations describe when the underlying assets of an entity in which benefit plan investors ("Benefit Plan Investors") invest are treated as "plan assets" for purposes of ERISA. Under ERISA, the term Benefit Plan Investors is defined to include an "employee benefit plan" that is subject to the provisions of Title I of ERISA, a "plan" that is subject to the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 4975 of the Code, and entities the assets of which are treated as "plan assets" by reason of investment therein by Benefit Plan Investors. Under ERISA, as a general rule, when an ERISA Plan invests assets in another entity, the ERISA Plan's assets include its investment, but do not, solely by reason of such investment, include any of the underlying assets of the entity.

¹ References hereinafter made to ERISA include parallel references to the Code.

However, when an ERISA Plan acquires an “equity interest” in an entity that is neither: (a) a “publicly offered security”; nor (b) a security issued by an investment BDC registered under the Investment Company Act, then the ERISA Plan’s assets include both the equity interest and an undivided interest in each of the underlying assets of the entity, unless it is established that: (i) the entity is an “operating company”; or (ii) the equity participation in the entity by Benefit Plan Investors is limited. Under ERISA, the assets of an entity will not be treated as “plan assets” if Benefit Plan Investors hold less than 25% (or such higher percentage as may be specified in regulations promulgated by the DOL) of the value of each class of equity Shares in the entity. Equity Shares held by a person with discretionary authority or control with respect to the assets of the entity and equity Shares held by a person who provides investment advice for a fee (direct or indirect) with respect to such assets or any affiliate of any such person (other than a Benefit Plan Investor) are not considered for purposes of determining whether the assets of an entity will be treated as “plan assets” for purposes of ERISA. The Benefit Plan Investor percentage of ownership test applies at the time of an acquisition by any person of the equity Shares. In addition, an advisory opinion of the DOL takes the position that a redemption of an equity interest by an investor constitutes the acquisition of an equity interest by the remaining investors (through an increase in their percentage ownership of the remaining equity Shares), thus triggering an application of the Benefit Plan Investor percentage of ownership test at the time of the redemption.

Limitation on Investments by Benefit Plan Investors

It is the current intent of the BDC Manager to monitor the investments in the BDC to ensure that the aggregate investment by Benefit Plan Investors does not equal or exceed 25% of the value of any class of the Shares in the BDC (or such higher percentage as may be specified in regulations promulgated by the DOL) so that assets of the BDC will not be treated as “plan assets” under ERISA. Shares held by the BDC Manager and its affiliates are not considered for purposes of determining whether the assets of the BDC will be treated as “plan assets” for the purpose of ERISA. If the assets of the BDC were treated as “plan assets” of a Benefit Plan Investor, the BDC Manager would be a “fiduciary” (as defined in ERISA and the Code) with respect to each such Benefit Plan Investor, and would be subject to the obligations and liabilities imposed on fiduciaries by ERISA. In such circumstances, the BDC would be subject to various other requirements of ERISA and the Code. In particular, the BDC would be subject to rules restricting transactions with “parties in interest” and prohibiting transactions involving conflicts of interest on the part of fiduciaries which might result in a violation of ERISA and the Code unless the BDC obtained appropriate exemptions from the DOL allowing the BDC to conduct its operations as described herein. The BDC reserves the right to require the withdrawal of all or part of the Interest held by any Shareholder, including, without limitation, to ensure compliance with the percentage limitation on investment in the BDC by Benefit Plan Investors as set forth above.

Representations by Plans

An ERISA Plan proposing to invest in the BDC will be required to represent that it is, and any fiduciaries responsible for the ERISA Plan’s investments are, aware of and understand the BDC’s investment objectives, policies and strategies, and that the decision to invest plan assets in the BDC was made with appropriate consideration of relevant investment factors with regard to the ERISA Plan and is consistent with the duties and responsibilities imposed upon fiduciaries with regard to their investment decisions under ERISA. WHETHER OR NOT THE ASSETS OF THE BDC ARE TREATED AS “PLAN ASSETS” UNDER ERISA, AN INVESTMENT IN THE BDC BY AN ERISA PLAN IS SUBJECT TO ERISA. ACCORDINGLY, FIDUCIARIES OF ERISA PLANS SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN COUNSEL AS TO THE CONSEQUENCES UNDER ERISA OF AN INVESTMENT IN THE BDC.

ERISA Plans and Individual Retirement BDCs Having Prior Relationships with the BDC Manager or its Affiliates

Certain prospective ERISA Plan and Individual Retirement BDC investors may currently maintain relationships with the BDC Manager or other entities that are affiliated with the BDC Manager. Each of such entities may be deemed to be a party in interest to and/or a fiduciary of any ERISA Plan or Individual Retirement BDC to which any of the BDC Manager or its affiliates provides investment management, investment advisory or other services. ERISA prohibits ERISA Plan assets to be used for the benefit of a party in interest and also prohibits an ERISA Plan fiduciary from using its position to cause the ERISA Plan to make an investment from which it or certain third parties in which such fiduciary has an interest would receive a fee or other consideration. Similar provisions are imposed by the Code with respect to Individual Retirement BDCs. ERISA Plan and Individual Retirement BDC investors should consult with counsel to determine if participation in the BDC is a transaction that is prohibited by ERISA or the Code. The provisions of ERISA are subject to extensive and continuing administrative and judicial interpretation and review. The discussion of ERISA contained herein is, of necessity, general and may be affected by future publication of regulations and rulings. Potential investors should consult with their legal advisors regarding the consequences under ERISA of the acquisition and ownership of Shares.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF SHARES

The Stock offered hereby have not been registered under the Securities Act, in reliance upon the exemptions provided by the Act and Regulation D thereunder, nor have the Shares been registered under the securities laws of any state in which they will be offered in reliance upon applicable exemptions in such states. Therefore, the Stock cannot be re-offered or resold unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act and any other applicable state securities laws or an exemption from registration is available under the Securities Act or such other laws. Pursuant to the terms of the Subscription Agreement, BDC Investors shall agree to pledge, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of their Shares only in a transaction that is the subject of (i) an effective registration under the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws or (ii) an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the BDC to the effect that the registration of such transaction is not required. Accordingly, prospective investors in the BDC must be willing to bear the economic risk of an investment in the BDC for the period of time stipulated in the withdrawal provisions of the BDC Management Agreement.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Prospective investors should understand that the discussions and summaries of documents in this Memorandum are not intended to be complete. Such discussions and summaries are subject to and are qualified in their entirety by reference to such documents. The BDC will deliver to any prospective investor, upon request, a copy of any and all such documents. The BDC Manager will afford prospective investors and their purchaser representatives the opportunity to ask questions and receive answers concerning the terms and conditions of the Offering and to obtain any additional information which the BDC possesses or can acquire without unreasonable effort or expense.

Offering Price Adjustment: (Implemented February 1st, 2024)

This Amendment Supplemental No. 9 ("Supplement") served as an official notification to amend certain sections of the Confidential Private Placement Memorandum ("Memorandum") issued by Capital Q Management LLC (the "BDC Manager").

1) Offering Price Revision:

- a) Effective as of February 1st, 2024, the Company revised the Offering Price per share from $700.00 to $812.00.
- b) This adjustment was sought to align the Offering Price more closely with the Company's fourth quarter 2023 NAV reporting of $902.88.
- c) The revised Offering Price, while still at a discount to the BDC's then NAV, is intended to safeguard against undue dilution to the benefit of our existing shareholders when admitting new investors into the BDC.

2) Authority to Adjust Offering Price:

- a) The Board of Directors retains the discretionary authority to modify the Offering Price per share. Such modifications may either increase or decrease the Offering Price, but it shall never surpass the Net Asset Value ("NAV"), as periodically determined by the BDC Manager. This applies, particularly if our NAV per share: (i) declines more than 10% from the NAV per share as of the effective date of the offering or (ii) increases more than 10% of the net proceeds per share, as stated in this Memorandum.

3) Reference to Risk Factors:

- a) For an elaborate discussion on the implications and potential risks associated with the Offering Price, prospective and existing investors are directed to review the section titled "Risk Factors: Offering Price" in the Memorandum.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Current regulations require financial institutions (including investment BDCs) to provide their investors with an initial and annual privacy notice describing the institution's policies regarding the sharing of information about their investors. In connection with this requirement, we are providing this Privacy Notice to each of our investors.

We do not disclose nonpublic personal information about our investors or former investors to third parties other than as described below.

We collect information about you (such as name, address, social security number, assets and income) from our discussions with you, from documents that you may deliver to us (such as subscription documents) and in the course of providing services to you. ARTICLE I – FORMATION AND PURPOSE

1.01 Formation. The parties hereby form a BDC and agree to conduct business as an externally managed closed-end investment management company that is Specifically regulated by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act) and who has elected to be subject to the provisions of Sections 55 through 65 of the 1940 Act.

1.02 The Company was organized as a Florida Corporation on March 20, 2020 to operate as a private non-publicly traded BDC.

1.04 Name. The name of the BDC shall be: CAPQ BDC Inc. d/b/a Capital Q Business Development Company (the “BDC”), and the business of the BDC shall be conducted under the name “Capital Q® Business Development Company”.

1.05 Offices. The registered office of the BDC in the state of Florida is located at 100 East Faith Terrace, Suite 1016, Maitland, Florida 32751. The BDC may have such additional offices at such other places as the BDC Manager shall deem advisable.

1.06 Term. The BDC shall continue until the earlier of (i) the termination, bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution of the BDC Manager, (ii) the complete withdrawal of the BDC Manager from the BDC, unless a successor BDC Manager is appointed pursuant to Section 4.02(b) hereof, (iii) entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 17-802 of the Act, (iv) a determination by the BDC Manager that the BDC should be dissolved, or (v) ten (10) years after the date that the BDC first accepts a capital contribution (the “Term”), provided that the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, may extend the Term for an additional five (5) calendar years, each such additional calendar year subject to an annual review and determination by the BDC Manager whether to extend the Term. EXCEPT, IF THE SHAREHOLDERS HAVE APPROVED PRIOR TO THE TERM ENDING, THE BDC TO FILE ITS REGISTRATION STATEMENT FOR A CLASS OF EQUITY SECURITIES PURSUANT TO SECTION 12 OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AND HAVE ADDITIONALLY FILED, FORM N-54A NOTIFICATION OF ELECTION TO BE SUBJECT TO SECTIONS 55 THROUGH 65 OF THE INVESTMENT COMPANY ACT OF 1940, FILED PURSUANT TO SECTION 54(a) OF THE ACT AND QUALIFIED AS A BDC FOR AN INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING OR ALTERNATIVELY COMPLETES A BUSINESS COMBINATION TO BE MERGED INTO A PUBLICLY TRADED BDC, WHICH WOULD HAS THE SAME EFFECT OF A REGISTRATION OF THE COMPANY’S COMMON STOCK TO BE TRADED PUBLICLY.

1.07 Purpose of BDC.

(a) The BDC is organized for the purpose of investing in Securities and engaging in all activities and transactions as the BDC Manager may deem necessary or advisable in connection therewith and doing such other lawful acts as the BDC Manager may deem necessary or advisable in connection with the maintenance and administration of the BDC.

(b) The BDC may engage in other activities and businesses incidental to the purpose of the BDC as may be necessary or desirable, in the opinion of the BDC Manager, to promote and carry out the principal purposes of the BDC, as set forth above; provided, however, that, without the written consent of all of the Investors: (i) the purpose of the BDC shall not be changed, and (ii) the BDC shall not engage in any substantial business endeavor other than those consistent with the purpose of the BDC, or incidental thereto.

1.08 Investment Management Techniques Proprietary. The investment management systems, techniques and methods employed by the BDC Manager in the management of the BDC's investments shall be the sole property of the BDC Manager, and neither the BDC nor any Shareholder shall have any interest in or right or claim with respect to such investment management systems, techniques or methods or in any of the research products or recommendations generated through their use.

1.09 Definitions. Capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning attributed to such terms in the definitions set forth in Appendix A hereto, or in the relevant section of this Agreement listed on Appendix A.

ARTICLE II – ADMISSION OF INVESTORS; CAPITALIZATION

2.01 Admission of Investors. The BDC Manager may admit one or more new Investors at such times and on such terms as the BDC Manager deems appropriate, subject only to the conditions that:

(a) Each new Shareholder shall execute a Subscription Agreement pursuant to which it agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions hereof;

(b) The total number of BDC Investors may not at any time exceed one hundred (100) (as interpreted under Section 3 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder); and

(c) The BDC Manager reasonably believes that any new Shareholder satisfies the minimum investor suitability standards established by the BDC Manager.

2.02 Capital Contributions of BDC Investors. Upon admission to the BDC, each Shareholder shall contribute Cash in the amount set forth in such Stockholder's Subscription Agreement. The minimum initial capital contribution to the BDC by a Shareholder is generally $100,000 subject to the BDC Manager's sole discretion to accept subscriptions for lesser amounts or, upon giving notice to the BDC Investors, to require a higher minimum. BDC Investors may be admitted on the first business day of any calendar month, or at any other time the BDC Manager chooses to accept initial capital contributions. The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, reject any initial subscription request.

2.03 Additional Capital Contributions. A Shareholder may make additional contributions in Cash to the BDC in amounts of not less than $25,000, with the consent of the BDC Manager and subject to its sole and absolute discretion to accept lesser amounts. Additional capital contributions may be accepted from existing BDC Investors on the first business day of any calendar month, or at any other time the BDC Manager chooses to accept such additional capital contributions. The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, reject any additional subscription request.

2.04 No Interest on Contributions. No Shareholder shall be entitled to receive interest on its capital contributions.

2.05 No Right to Return of Capital Contribution. No Shareholder shall have the right to withdraw from the BDC or to demand a return of all or any part of his capital contribution during the term of the BDC except as provided in Article IV hereof.

2.06 Liability of BDC Investors. Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall any Shareholder be liable for (i) any debts, obligations, liabilities or indemnifications of the BDC in an amount that exceeds the capital contribution of such Shareholder or for (ii) any debts, obligations, liabilities or indemnifications of any other Shareholder, nor shall the BDC Investors have any personal liability for contributing any capital to the BDC.

ARTICLE III – CAPITAL ACCOUNTS; PROFITS AND LOSSES

3.01 Capital Accounts.

(a) A Capital Account shall be established and maintained on the books of the BDC for each Shareholder. The amount of each Stockholder's initial capital contribution shall be credited to its Capital Account at the beginning of the Accounting Period in which such capital contribution is accepted. At the end of such Accounting Period (and each Accounting Period thereafter), the Capital Account of each Shareholder shall be (i) increased or decreased by the amount credited or debited to the Capital Account of such Shareholder pursuant to Section 3.02(a) through (c), and (ii) increased by such Stockholder's share of any amount re-allocated from a Side Pocket Investment Account pursuant to Section 3.04(c). At the beginning of each Accounting Period thereafter, the Capital Account of each Shareholder shall be increased by the amount of any additional capital contributions made by such Shareholder on the first day of such Accounting Period, and decreased by (i) the amount of any withdrawals made by such Shareholder pursuant to Article IV as of the end of the immediately preceding Accounting Period and (ii) its share of an investment for which a Side Pocket Investment Account is created pursuant to Section 3.04(b). At the end of each Accounting Period that ends on the last day of a quarter, each Stockholder's Capital Account shall be decreased by the amount of the Management Fee then due pursuant to Section 5.06(a).

(b) Capital Account balances and the value of any capital contributed to the BDC shall be determined by application of the capital accounting rules in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv).

(c) No portion of any capital contribution shall be allocated to any Side Pocket Investment Account that is already being maintained by the BDC at the time of such capital contribution. Any Security that is being held in a Side Pocket Investment Account shall not be considered to be part of a Stockholder's Capital Account for purposes of this Section 3.01, except to the extent the investment or the proceeds of such Side Pocket Investment Account are re-allocated to a Stockholder's Capital Account pursuant to Section 3.04(c).

3.02 Shares in Profits and Losses; Carried Interest.

(a) The Net Profit or Net Loss for each Accounting Period shall be tentatively allocated to each Stockholder's respective Capital Account, subject only to reduction pursuant to Section 3.02(b), as of the last day of the Accounting Period, as follows: (i) with respect to Net Capital Appreciation or Net Capital Depreciation, in proportion to the Stockholder's Allocation Percentage for such Accounting Period, and (ii) with respect to Net Realized Gain or Net Realized Loss in connection with a Side Pocket Investment, in proportion to the Stockholder's Allocation Percentage as of the date the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was created. For purposes of calculating Net Capital Appreciation or Net Capital Depreciation, the BDC will include both realized and unrealized gains and losses on its investments. In the case of the BDC Manager, the entire amount initially allocated to its Capital Account pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 3.02(a) shall be finally allocated to its Capital Account at the close of the Accounting Period.

(b) Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 3.04 through 3.08, upon the occurrence of each Realization Event following the Lock-Up (as defined herein), the aggregate net cash proceeds, if any, allocated to each Shareholder upon such Realization Event shall be finally allocated as follows:

- (i) First, to such Shareholder until such time as the Shareholder has received and/or reinvested aggregate net cash proceeds from Realization Events in an amount equal to eight percent (8%) of such Stockholder's aggregate capital contributions to the BDC,
- (ii) Second, 2% "catch-up" of such excess shall be allocated to the BDC Manager (such amount allocated to the BDC Manager, the "Carried Interest").
- (iii) Thereafter, 80% to such Shareholder and 20% to the BDC Manager, until it has received at least 90% of any excess over the amount allocated and pursuant to the foregoing Section 3.02(b)(i).

The final allocations set forth in this Section 3.02(b) (and 3.02(c) below) may be computed at the end of an Accounting Period, in the sole discretion of the BDC Manager, for a Shareholder who effects a partial or complete withdrawal from its Capital Account at the end of such Accounting Period as if the applicable Distribution Date were the last day of a Carried Interest Period. If such Shareholder is making a partial withdrawal of its Capital Account, the allocations set forth in this Section 3.02 for the remainder of the Carried Interest Period in which such Accounting Period occurs shall be based on such Stockholder's Allocation Percentage immediately following such withdrawal. The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, enter into arrangements with BDC Investors under which the Carried Interest is reduced, waived or calculated differently with respect to such BDC Investors, including, without limitation, BDC Investors that are members, affiliates or employees of the BDC Manager, members of the immediate families of such persons and trusts or other entities for their benefit, or BDC Investors that make a substantial investment or otherwise are determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion to represent a strategic relationship.

(c) Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 3.04 through 3.08, upon the occurrence of each Realization Event, the aggregate Net Loss, if any, allocated to each Shareholder upon such Realization Event shall be finally allocated to such Shareholder.

3.03 Allocations of Side Pocket Investments.

(a) In the event the BDC Manager determines to cause the BDC to make a Side Pocket Investment, a separate bookkeeping account shall be established for each Side Pocket Investment (each a “Side Pocket Investment Account”). Each Side Pocket Investment Account shall have an initial aggregate value (the “Original Value”) equal to the fair value (as determined by the BDC Manager) of the Side Pocket Investment at the time the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established (which shall generally be cost if the investment is designated as a Side Pocket Investment at the time of its acquisition).

(b) On the date a Side Pocket Investment Account is established, each Stockholder’s Capital Account shall be reduced by an amount determined by multiplying such Stockholder’s Allocation Percentage as of such date by the Original Value of such investment. Net Realized Gain and Net Realized Loss shall be allocated to the Investors participating in a Side Pocket Investment Account in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages on the date such Side Pocket Investment Account was established.

(c) Upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, the Fair Market Value of the Securities held or received with respect to such Realization Event and/or the cash proceeds thereof shall be reallocated, at such time as the BDC Manager determines, from the Side Pocket Investment Account to the Capital Accounts of each of the Investors participating therein pro rata in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages on the date the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account was established and, thereafter, the Side Pocket Investment Account shall be closed out.

(d) The Original Value of each Side Pocket Investment may include such reserves (including reserves for working capital and contingencies) as the BDC Manager in its discretion may consider advisable or necessary. In addition, the BDC Manager shall charge any expense relating specifically to a Side Pocket Investment to each Shareholder that has an interest in the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account in proportion to such Stockholder’s Allocation Percentage as of the date such Side Pocket Investment Account was established. The Management Fee calculated under Section 5.06(a) with respect to Side Pocket Investments shall be based on the most recent audited financial statements of such investments; provided that, where such audited financial statements are not available, such investments will be valued at fair value, which may be cost, as reasonably determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion.

3.04 Limitation on Allocations. Any Net Losses or items of loss or deduction allocated to a Shareholder pursuant to this Article III shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be allocated without causing the Shareholder to have a negative Capital Account balance, after giving effect to the following adjustments: (a) debit to such Capital Account balance the items described in Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6), and (b) credit to such Capital Account balance the sum of (i) the amount that the Shareholder is obligated to restore to the capital of the BDC, and (ii) the amount that the Shareholder is deemed to restore pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c)(1) and (2). The BDC shall allocate all Net Losses or items of loss or deduction in excess of the limitations set forth in this Section 3.04 first to any BDC Investors to whom the limitation in the preceding sentence does not apply, in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages. Any Net Losses that the BDC cannot allocate to any Shareholder as a result of the limitation set forth in the first sentence of this Section 3.04 shall be allocated to the BDC Manager.

3.05 Qualified Income Offset. In the event that any Shareholder unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations or distributions described in Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6) that cause a deficit balance in such Stockholder’s Capital Account, the BDC shall allocate items of BDC income and gain to that Shareholder in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate the deficit balance as quickly as possible, provided that the BDC shall make an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.05 only if and to the extent that a Shareholder would have a deficit Capital Account balance after the BDC makes all other allocations provided for in this Article III as if this Section 3.05 were not in the Agreement. For purposes of any allocation pursuant to the preceding sentence, in determining any deficit balance in a Stockholder’s Capital Account, the BDC shall (a) reduce the Stockholder’s Capital Account by expected adjustments, allocations or distributions described in Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6), and (b) increase the Stockholder’s Capital Account by any amount that the Shareholder must restore to the deficit balance of his Capital Account or that Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c) deems the Shareholder to restore to the deficit balance of his Capital Account.

3.06 Gross Income. In the event that any Shareholder has a deficit balance in its Capital Account as of the end of any Fiscal Year in excess of the sum of the amount such Shareholder is obligated to restore to the capital of the BDC pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, or that such Shareholder is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(c)(1) and (2), then the BDC shall allocate to each such Shareholder items of income and gain for such Fiscal Year and subsequent Fiscal Years, if necessary, in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate as quickly as possible such Capital Account deficit. The BDC shall make an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.06 if and only to the extent that such Shareholder would have such an excess deficit balance in its Capital Account after the BDC tentatively has made all other allocations pursuant to this Article III as if Section 3.05 and this Section 3.06 were not in this Agreement.

3.07 Section 754 Adjustments. To the extent that the BDC makes an election pursuant to Code Section 754 and Section 7.06 hereof, the amount of any adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any BDC asset pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or 743(b) that is required, pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases the basis of the asset) and the gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Investors in a manner consistent with the manner in which their Capital Accounts are required to be adjusted pursuant to such Regulations section.

3.08 Curative Allocations. The BDC intends that any allocations made pursuant to the last sentence of Section 3.04 or pursuant to Section 3.05, Section 3.06 or Section 3.07 (collectively, “Regulatory Allocations”) comply with certain requirements of the Regulations. The BDC also intends that, to the extent possible, the BDC offset all Regulatory Allocations either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations pursuant to this Section 3.08. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article III (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the BDC shall make such offsetting special allocations in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after it makes the offsetting allocations, each Stockholder’s Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance the Shareholder would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of the Agreement and the BDC allocated all items pursuant to the remaining Sections of this Article III.

3.09 Priority of Allocations. The BDC shall make the allocations pursuant to Section 3.02 through Section 3.08 in the following order and priority: (a) first, the BDC shall make the Regulatory Allocations in the order and priority in which they appear in this Agreement; and (b) next, the BDC shall make the allocations pursuant to Section 3.02 through Section 3.03.

3.10 Contributed and Revalued Property. For Federal income tax purposes, any income, gain, loss or deduction with respect to property contributed by a Shareholder to the BDC that has a fair market value different from its adjusted basis for Federal income tax purposes shall be allocated among the Investors in accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations Section 1.704-3, using any method prescribed in Regulations Section 1.704-3 determined by the BDC Manager. With respect to any BDC asset that is revalued pursuant to the terms hereof, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to the asset shall take into account any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for Federal income tax purposes and its fair market value at the time of revaluation in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and Regulations Section 1.704-3, using any method prescribed therein as determined by the BDC Manager.

3.11 Varying BDC Interest. In the event of the transfer of a BDC Interest during a Fiscal Year, or in the event that a Stockholder’s percentage interest changes during a Fiscal Year, the Net Profits, Net Losses or items of income, gain, loss or deduction allocated for the Fiscal Year during which the transfer occurs shall (a) be prorated between the transferor and transferee as of the date of the transfer, or (b) be prorated between the portion of the Fiscal Year prior to the change in percentage interest and the portion of the Fiscal Year after the change, using any method that the BDC determines in good faith reasonably and fairly represents the portion of the Net Profits, Net Losses or items of income, gain, loss and deduction properly allocable to the Investors.

3.12 Tax Items. Except as otherwise provided herein, any allocation to a Shareholder of a portion of the Net Profits, Net Losses or items of income, gain, loss or deduction for a Fiscal Year shall be deemed to be an allocation to that Shareholder of the same proportionate part of each item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit that is earned, realized or available by or to the BDC for Federal income tax purposes. In addition, all items of gain or loss recognized from the sale, exchange or other disposition of Securities (including closing a position or determining a security worthless) in any tax period will generally be allocated among the Investors, so that to the extent possible, consistent with a fair allocation of such items of gain or loss among all of the Investors, each Stockholder’s gain or loss for tax purposes is equal to the amount of gain or loss allocated to his Capital Account in respect of such transactions.

3.13 Stuffing Provision. As of the close of each Fiscal Year, the capital gains and capital losses of the BDC shall be allocated to the Stockholder's Capital Account so as to minimize, to the extent possible, any disparity between the "book" Capital Account and the "tax" Capital Account, consistent with the principles set forth in section 704 of the Code. To the extent permitted by the Treasury Regulations (or successor regulations) in effect under Code Sections 704(b) and 704(c), allocations of capital gain that have been realized up to the time a Capital Account was completely withdrawn may be allocated first to each Capital Account that was completely withdrawn during the applicable Fiscal Year to the extent that the "book" Capital Account as of the Distribution Date exceeds the "tax" Capital Account at that time, and allocations of capital loss that have been realized up to the time a Capital Account is completely withdrawn may be allocated first to each Capital Account that was completely withdrawn during the applicable Fiscal Year to the extent that the "tax" Capital Account as of the Distribution Date exceeded the "book" Capital Account of such Capital Account at that time. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, capital gain or capital loss recognized with respect to Securities contributed to the BDC, if any, shall be specifically allocated to the contributing Shareholder in the amount and manner required by Code Section 704(c) and the regulations thereunder, and, to the extent so allocated, shall be excluded from the computation of the BDC's capital gain or capital loss, as applicable, for the relevant fiscal year.

ARTICLE IV – DISTRIBUTIONS OF CASH FLOWS; WITHDRAWALS

4.01 Withdrawals of BDC Investors' Capital Account.

(a) BDC Investors may not voluntarily withdraw any capital from the BDC. In certain circumstances, however, a Shareholder may be required to withdraw from the BDC if the BDC Manager reasonably determines, in its sole discretion, that such Stockholder's continued participation in the BDC would result in a violation of the applicable laws or could otherwise be expected to have a material adverse effect on the BDC and/or the BDC Manager. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the first sixty (60) months of the BDC's operations (the "Lock-Up Period"), the BDC will generally permit redemption to each Shareholder of the net cash proceeds reallocated to such Stockholder's Capital Account upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to each Side Pocket Investment (net of any accrued Management Fee and Carried Interest, if any; such amount, the "Distribution Proceeds"), subject to the capital needs of the BDC as determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion. A Shareholder will be generally permitted to request available Distribution Proceeds from its Capital Account as of the last business day of the calendar month immediately following the month in which the Shareholder received notice that the underlying Realization Event occurred, or such other date as the BDC Manager may determine in its discretion (each such date, a "Distribution Date") provided that the BDC receives at least thirty (30) days written notice of such distribution date prior to the applicable Distribution Date. The BDC Manager will notify each Shareholder in writing of each occurrence of a Realization Event.

(b) Payments of Distribution Proceeds are generally made within thirty (30) days of the effective Distribution Date; however, in the event a Shareholder withdraws 90% or more of the BDCs from such Stockholder's Capital Account (or if a distribution, when combined with all other distributions effected by such Shareholder during the preceding twelve (12) months, would result in such Shareholder having withdrawn 90% or more of its Capital Account during such period), a portion (generally not to exceed five percent (5%)) of the Distribution Proceeds will be retained in the BDC Manager's discretion pending completion of the annual audit of the BDC's financial statements for the fiscal year in which the distribution occurs. A Shareholder shall not be entitled to interest on the amount of any retained Distribution Proceeds. Payment of any amounts in respect of a withdrawal pursuant to this Section 4.01(b) shall be net of any accrued but unpaid Management Fee and, if applicable, any earned Carried Interest on the withdrawn portion of the applicable Stockholder's Capital Account.

(c) The BDC Manager may in its sole discretion require or permit any Shareholder, for any reason or no reason and at any time, with or without notice, to effect a complete or partial withdrawal of amounts contained in his Capital Account in accordance with the procedures outlined in this Section 4.01 except that in such case (i) any dollar limitations may be waived by the BDC Manager and (ii) the BDC Manager may, in its sole and absolute discretion, distribute to such Shareholder up to one hundred percent (100%) of his or her Capital Account at any time prior to the date on which that Shareholder would have been entitled to receive such a distribution had the Shareholder properly requested such a complete withdrawal. The undistributed remainder, if any, of such a Capital Account shall be distributed pursuant to the provisions of Section 4.01(b).

(d) Any Shareholder who effects a withdrawal during a Fiscal Year shall be obligated upon notice by the BDC Manager to reimburse the BDC in Cash or immediately available BDCs for any overpayment made pursuant to such withdrawal, as determined after completion of the annual accounting of the BDC's books for that Fiscal Year and after any adjustments to the Capital Accounts of the Investors as are necessary in light of accounting; provided, however, that such reimbursement shall be required only to the extent that the overpayment exceeded the aggregate of any amount retained by the BDC and any balance remaining in such Stockholder's Capital Account at the time of such determination. Any obligation of a Shareholder arising under the provisions of this section to reimburse the BDC for an overpayment shall terminate unless notice of the amount of the overpayment and a reasonable explanation of the calculation of such overpayment amount has been given on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following completion of the audit of the BDC's annual financial statements for the Fiscal Year in which the subject withdrawal was made. In the event that proper reimbursement has not been received by the BDC within thirty (30) days after proper notice, the amount of an overpayment shall begin to bear interest payable to the BDC beginning as of the date that proper notice of the overpayment has been given, with the rate of interest equal to the greater of (i) 10% per annum compounded Quarterly or (ii) the prime rate announced by the Wall Street Journal, as of the date of such proper notice plus two percent (2.0%), compounded Quarterly and readjusted and re-amortized at the beginning of the next calendar month thereafter.

(e) At the discretion of the BDC Manager, any withdrawal by a Shareholder may be subject to a charge, as the BDC Manager may reasonably require, in order to defray the costs and expenses of the BDC in connection with such withdrawal including, without limitation, any charges or fees imposed by any BDC investment in connection with a corresponding withdrawal or redemption by the BDC from such investment or any other costs associated with the sale of any of the BDC's portfolio investments.

(f) A Shareholder may not withdraw any of its interest in a Side Pocket Investment Account until such time as a Realization Event has occurred with respect to the relevant Side Pocket Investment. At such time as a Realization Event occurs with respect to a Side Pocket Investment in which a Shareholder who has otherwise withdrawn its entire Capital Account has an interest, 95% of such Stockholder's share of the proceeds thereof (determined in accordance with Section 3.03(d) hereof, net of any accrued but unpaid Management Fee pursuant to Section 5.06(a) hereof and any Carried Interest) shall be distributed to such Shareholder within 30 days after receipt thereof by the BDC, with the remainder to be distributed to such Shareholder promptly following completion of the annual audit of the BDC's financial statements for the Fiscal Year in which such Realization Event occurred.

4.02 Withdrawals of BDC Manager's Capital Account.

(a) Except as set forth elsewhere in this Section 4.02, the BDC Manager shall have the same withdrawal rights as a Shareholder.

(b) If the BDC Manager provides a notice of resignation pursuant to paragraph (a) above or is disqualified pursuant to Section 4.06 hereof, the BDC shall dissolve and thereafter conduct only those activities necessary to wind up its affairs in accordance with the provisions of Article IX hereof, unless within 90 days after receipt of notice of such resignation or disqualification BDC Investors representing a majority of the Allocation Percentages of all BDC Investors vote to continue the BDC and in connection therewith appoint a successor BDC Manager. For the avoidance of doubt, if no successor BDC Manager is appointed and the BDC dissolves, all unsatisfied withdrawal requests and pending distributions shall be postponed until the completion of the winding up of the BDC and a final accounting pursuant to Article IX.

(c) If the BDC Investors appoint a successor BDC Manager in accordance with paragraph (b) above, the BDC shall pay to the BDC Manager or its legal representatives the BDC Manager's ending Capital Account balance (after computation of any applicable Carried Interest) within 30 days of the appointment of such successor BDC Manager (and the date of such appointment shall be deemed the end of an Accounting Period for all purposes under this Agreement); provided, however, that a portion (generally not to exceed 5%) of the withdrawal payment will be retained pending completion of the audit of the BDC's annual financial statements for the Fiscal Year in which the appointment of such successor BDC Manager occurs.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4.02 shall not apply in the event that, after a withdrawal of the BDC Manager pursuant to paragraph (a) above or the disqualification of the BDC Manager pursuant to Section 4.06, the BDC Manager is succeeded by an affiliate of the BDC Manager pursuant to Section 2.01(b) or its Interest is transferred in a transaction that does not require the consent of the BDC Investors pursuant to Section 8.05 hereof.

4.03 Limitations on Withdrawals. The BDC Manager may suspend the right of withdrawal or postpone the date of payment for any period during which (i) any stock exchange or over-the-counter market on which a substantial part of the Securities owned by the BDC are traded is closed, (other than weekend or holiday closings) or trading on any such exchange or market is restricted or suspended, (ii) there exists a state of affairs that constitutes a state of emergency, as a result of which disposal of the Securities owned by the BDC is not reasonably practicable or it is not reasonably practicable to determine fairly the value of its assets, (iii) a breakdown occurs in any of the means normally employed in ascertaining the value of a substantial part of the assets of the BDC or when for any other reason the value of such assets cannot reasonably be ascertained, (iv) a delay is reasonably necessary, as determined in the reasonable discretion of the BDC Manager, in order to effectuate an orderly liquidation of the BDC's investments in a manner that does not have a material adverse impact on the BDC or the non-withdrawing BDC Investors, or (v) in such other extraordinary circumstances as determined in good faith by the BDC Manager. At the conclusion of such period, the BDC Manager shall resume permitting withdrawals otherwise permitted pursuant to this Article IV and shall resume any payments pursuant to such withdrawals as soon as reasonably practicable.

4.04 Distributions. Except as otherwise set forth in this Article IV, a Shareholder who has satisfied the applicable notice requirements set forth herein with respect to withdrawal requests shall receive a distribution (or distributions) in Cash in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.01(b).

4.05 Withholding from Distributions. The BDC Manager may establish reserves for expenses, liabilities or contingencies (including those not addressed by GAAP) arising from events occurring during the period of time during which a withdrawing Shareholder was a Shareholder of the BDC including, without limitation, contingent liabilities relating to pending or anticipated litigation, IRS audits or other governmental proceedings, which could reduce the amount of a distribution upon withdrawal. All amounts withheld pursuant to the Code or any provision of any state or local tax law with respect to any payment, distribution or allocation to the BDC or to the Investors shall be treated as amounts distributed to the Investors pursuant to this Article IV for all purposes of the Agreement. The BDC is authorized to withhold from distributions, or with respect to allocations, to the Investors and to pay over to any federal, state or local government any amount required to be withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state or local law and may allocate any such amounts among the Investors in any manner that is in accordance with applicable law. If there are any assets that, in the judgment of the BDC Manager, cannot be valued properly until sold or realized or cannot be sold without sacrificing a substantial portion of the value thereof, such assets may be excluded from the valuation of assets for purposes of computing the amount available for distribution to a Shareholder upon withdrawal of any portion of its Capital Account pursuant to this Article IV. Any Stockholder's pro rata interest in such assets shall not be paid until such time as the BDC Manager, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines that circumstances no longer require such assets to be so excluded (in whole or in part). If there is any contingent liability of the BDC or any pending transaction or claim by the BDC as to which the withdrawing Stockholder's share of such liability or claim cannot, in the judgment of the BDC Manager, then be determined, the probable loss or liability, or value of the claim, as the case may be, may be excluded from the valuation of assets or liabilities for purposes of computing the amount owing to any Shareholder upon its withdrawal pursuant to this Article IV. No amount shall be paid or charged to any such Stockholder's Capital Account on account of any such contingency, transaction or claim until its final settlement or such earlier time as the BDC Manager shall determine. The BDC may retain from sums otherwise due such Shareholder an amount that the BDC Manager estimates to be sufficient to cover the share of such Shareholder of any probable loss or liability on account of such contingency, or the probable value of the transaction or claim. Any amount so withheld from a Shareholder shall be held in a segregated interest-bearing account (which may be commingled with similar accounts of other Investors). Any unused portion of such reserve shall be distributed with interest accrued thereon once the BDC Manager has determined that the need therefor has ceased. Upon determination by the BDC Manager that circumstances no longer require the exclusion of assets or retention of sums as provided in this Section 4.05, the BDC Manager shall, at the earliest practicable time, pay such sums or the proceeds realized from the sale of such assets to each Shareholder from whom such sums or assets have been withheld.

4.06 Disqualification.

(a) For the purposes of this Agreement, a Shareholder shall be deemed to be "disqualified" upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (i) If the Shareholder is a natural person, upon his death, his adjudication as an incompetent, his becoming bankrupt or adjudicated insolvent, or his making an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or

- (ii) If the Shareholder is not a natural person, upon its voluntary dissolution or liquidation, its bankruptcy or adjudication of insolvency, its making an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or its becoming subject to involuntary reorganization or liquidation proceedings and such proceedings not being dismissed within ninety (90) days after filing.

(b) Neither the withdrawal nor the disqualification of a Shareholder shall dissolve the BDC. Upon the disqualification of a Shareholder, the successor-in-interest of the Shareholder shall become a transferee of the Shareholder and be credited or paid, or charged with, as the case may be, all further allocations and distributions on account of the Interest of the disqualified Shareholder; provided, no such successor-in-interest shall become a substituted Shareholder without first obtaining the written consent of the BDC Manager, whose consent may be withheld for any or no reason, and without complying with the provisions of Section 8.02 hereof.

(c) The disqualification of the BDC Manager shall cause the dissolution of the BDC unless a successor BDC Manager is appointed in accordance with the terms of Section 4.02 hereof. For purposes of this Section 4.06(c), if any of the Principals becomes disqualified within the meaning of Section 4.06(a) above, the BDC Manager will be deemed to be disqualified as well.

4.07 Status of Withdrawn Shareholder. From and after the effective Distribution Date applicable to a Shareholder who has withdrawn all or any portion of its Capital Account, such Shareholder shall be deemed a creditor of the BDC with respect to the withdrawn portion after all adjustments to such Capital Account pursuant to Article III and any applicable limitations set forth in this Article IV to the extent that such withdrawn portion has not been distributed to such Shareholder pursuant to Section 4.04 hereof. Such Shareholder shall thereafter be deemed a Shareholder only to the extent that such Shareholder withdraws less than all of its Capital Account and to the extent of its interest in any Side Pocket Investment Accounts.

ARTICLE V – POWERS, DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF BDC MANAGER

5.01 Management of the BDC. The assets, affairs and operations of the BDC shall be managed by the BDC Manager.

5.02 Powers of BDC Manager. All references herein to any action to be taken by the BDC shall mean action taken in the name of the BDC and on its behalf by the BDC Manager. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the BDC Manager will have exclusive management and control of the business of the BDC and will (except as otherwise provided in any other agreements) make all decisions affecting the BDC and the BDC's assets. In addition to the rights, powers, and authority granted elsewhere in this Agreement and by law, the BDC Manager will have the right, power, and authority to obligate and bind the BDC and, on behalf of and in the name of the BDC, to take any action of any kind and to do anything it deems necessary or advisable in pursuit of the BDC's purposes, including, without limitation, the following:

- (iv) Liquidate Securities that have been distributed to the BDC in-kind;
- (v) Engage in repurchase agreements, swap transactions and transactions involving structured or derivative instruments; and
- (vi) Delegate the authority to engage in such activities as to some or all of the BDC's assets to one or more investment managers, and to pursue such activities through investment in one or more pooled investment vehicles;

(b) To borrow on behalf of the BDC and to pledge and hypothecate Securities and other assets of the BDC for such loans, and to lend (with or without security) any Securities or other assets of the BDC;

(c) To open, maintain, conduct, and close accounts, including margin accounts with broker-dealers, futures commission merchants, and with banks or other custodians for BDC assets, each as selected by the BDC Manager, and to draw checks or other orders for the payment of money by the BDC, and in furtherance of the foregoing, to:

- (i) Issue instructions and authorizations to broker-dealers regarding Securities and/or money held in accounts of the BDC with such broker-dealers;
- (ii) Enter into prime broker agreements, clearing agreements, custodial agreements, margin account agreements and agreements with executing brokers and futures commission merchants;
- (iii) Pay or authorize the payment and reimbursement of brokerage commissions (or in the case of riskless principal transactions, spreads) that may be in excess of the lowest (or smallest spreads) available that are paid to broker-dealers who execute transactions for the account of the BDC and who (a) supply, or pay for (or rebate a portion of the BDC's brokerage commissions to the BDC for payment of) the cost of brokerage, research or execution services utilized by the BDC or the Other Accounts (as defined below) and/or (b) "step out" of a portion of the transaction in favor of a broker-dealer that has provided or is willing to provide research or execution products or services; provided that the BDC Manager considers, among other things and without limitation, in selecting a broker-dealer (that may be of benefit to the BDC, the BDC Manager and the Affiliated Persons (as defined below), and the Other Accounts): (i) commission rates, (ii) historical net prices (after mark-ups, mark-downs or other transaction-related compensation) on other transactions, (iii) execution, clearance and settlement capabilities, (iv) willingness to commit capital, (v) reliability, responsiveness and financial stability, (vi) size of the transaction, (vii) availability of Securities to borrow for short sales, (viii) the value of any research provided, and (ix) other products and/or services provided by such broker-dealers to the BDC Manager and Affiliated Persons or the BDC, including, among other things, referral of prospective BDC Investors and payment of all or a portion of the BDC's or the BDC Manager's or the Affiliated Person's costs of operations (including, for example, supplies, salaries, employee benefits, telephone, office equipment, news wire and data processing charges, attorneys' and accountants' fees, office rent, travel and entertainment expenses related to the BDC Manager's or the BDC's business, quotation services, periodical subscription fees, and custody, record keeping and similar services);
- (iv) Combine purchase or sale orders on behalf of the BDC with orders for the Other Accounts and allocate Securities or other assets so purchased or sold, on an average-price basis or by any other method of fair allocation, among such accounts; and
- (v) Enter into arrangements with broker-dealers to open average price accounts wherein orders placed during a trading day are placed on behalf of the BDC and Other Accounts and are allocated among such accounts using an average price;

(d) To employ from time to time, at the expense of the BDC, persons required for the BDC's business, including portfolio managers or other managers to manage any asset of the BDC, accountants, attorneys, investment advisers, financial consultants, and others (who may be affiliated with the BDC Manager) on such terms and for such compensation as the BDC Manager determines to be reasonable; and to give receipts, releases, indemnities, and discharges with respect to all of the foregoing and any matter incident thereto as the BDC Manager may deem advisable or appropriate;

(e) To engage in any transaction with the BDC Manager's affiliates to the extent permitted by applicable securities laws (including, without limitation, the ability to effect on behalf of the BDC any "agency cross transaction" (as contemplated in Rule 206(3)-2 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended) through the BDC Manager or any affiliate of the BDC Manager that is registered as a broker or dealer);

(f) To purchase, from or through others, contracts of liability, casualty and other insurance which the BDC Manager deems advisable, appropriate or convenient for the protection of the Securities acquired by the BDC or other assets or affairs of the BDC or for any purpose convenient or beneficial to the BDC, including policies of insurance insuring the BDC Manager and/or the BDC against liabilities that may arise out of the BDC Manager's management of the BDC;

(g) To make all tax elections required or permitted to be made by the BDC, including elections under Section 754 of the Code;

(h) To file, conduct and defend legal proceedings of any form, including proceedings against Investors, and to compromise and settle any such proceedings, or any claims against any person, including claims against Investors, on whatever terms deemed appropriate by the BDC Manager;

(i) To admit BDC Investors or additional or successor BDC Managers to the BDC and to remove BDC Investors;

(j) To maintain for the conduct of the BDC's affairs one or more offices and in connection therewith rent or acquire office space, and do such other acts as the BDC Manager may deem necessary or advisable in connection with the maintenance and administration of the BDC;

(k) To waive or reduce, in whole or in part, any notice period, minimum amount requirement, or other limitation or restriction imposed on capital contributions or withdrawals of capital; waive, reduce or, by agreement with any Shareholder, otherwise vary any fee or special allocation to the BDC Manager, and/or any requirement imposed on that Shareholder by this Agreement. The BDC Manager will have such right, power and authority regardless of whether such notice period, minimum amount, limitation, restriction, fee, or special allocation, or the waiver or reduction thereof, operates for the benefit of the BDC, the BDC Manager or fewer than all the BDC Investors;

(l) To retain an investment manager affiliated with the BDC Manager or other persons, firms or entities selected by the BDC Manager to provide certain management and administrative services to the BDC and to cause the BDC to compensate such Persons for such services in accordance with the terms of investment management agreements pursuant to which such investment manager will have discretionary investment authority over the BDC's assets;

(m) To amend this Agreement in accordance with Section 11.05;

(n) To establish one or more Side Pocket Investment Accounts in connection with the BDC's Side Pocket Investments and to account for the gain, income, loss and items of expense with respect thereto separate from the other investments of the BDC in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement;

(o) To authorize any member, officer, employee or other agent of the BDC Manager to act for and on behalf of the BDC in all matters incidental to the foregoing; and

(p) To do any and all acts on behalf of the BDC as it may deem necessary or advisable in connection with, or incidental to the accomplishment of, the purposes of the BDC or the maintenance and administration thereof.

5.03 Consent of the Investors. Notwithstanding Section 5.02 to the contrary, without the consent of all of the Investors, in no event shall the BDC Manager take any action outside the scope of the purposes of the BDC.

5.04 Duties of BDC Manager. Subject to the limitations in Section 5.03, the BDC Manager shall be charged with the full responsibility for managing and promoting the BDC's purpose and business. The BDC Manager shall devote its diligent efforts to the business and affairs of the BDC, including such time as shall be required, in the reasonable opinion of the BDC Manager, for the proper conduct of the business of the BDC. The BDC Manager shall not assign its duties under this Agreement except pursuant to the terms of Section 8.05 hereof. The BDC Manager shall have authority in its sole discretion to delegate any responsibilities hereunder to third parties with whom it contracts to provide services on behalf of the BDC. No such delegation shall relieve the BDC Manager from its duties or obligations hereunder.

5.05 Other Activities of the BDC Manager. The BDC Manager and its affiliates, shareholders, members, Investors, managers, directors, officers and employees (collectively, the "Affiliated Persons") will only devote so much time to the affairs of the BDC as is reasonably required in the judgment of the BDC Manager. The Affiliated Persons will not be precluded from engaging directly or indirectly in any other business or other activity, including exercising investment advisory and management responsibility and buying, selling or otherwise dealing with Securities and other investments for their own accounts, for the accounts of family members, for the accounts of other BDCs and for the accounts of individual and institutional clients (collectively, "Other Accounts"). Such Other Accounts may have investment objectives or may implement investment strategies similar to those of the BDC. The Affiliated Persons may also have investments in certain of the Other Accounts. Each of the Affiliated Persons may give advice and take action in the performance of their duties to their Other Accounts that could differ from the timing and nature of action taken with respect to the BDC. The Affiliated Persons will have no obligation to purchase or sell for the BDC any investment that the Affiliated Persons purchase or sell, or recommend for purchase or sale, for their own accounts or for any of the Other Accounts. The BDC will not have any rights of first refusal, co-investment or other rights in respect of the investments made by Affiliated Persons for the Other Accounts, or in any fees, profits or other income earned or otherwise derived from them. If a determination is made that the BDC and one or more Other Accounts should purchase or sell the same investments at the same time, the Affiliated Persons will allocate these purchases and sales as is considered equitable to each. No Shareholder will, by reason of being a Shareholder of the BDC, have any right to participate in any manner in any profits or income earned or derived by or accruing to the Affiliated Persons from the conduct of any business or from any transaction in investments effected by the Affiliated Persons for any account other than that of the BDC.

5.06 Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) A management fee (the “Management Fee”) is paid quarterly in arrears to the BDC Manager. The Management Fee is equal to 0.4375% (1.75% per annum) of the closing Capital Account balance of each Shareholder for such quarter, including, for this purpose, such Stockholder’s interest in all Side Pocket Investment Accounts as determined under Section 3.03(d). The Management Fee will be appropriately prorated to reflect any capital contributions that occur during a quarter. The Capital Account of a Shareholder making a withdrawal other than the last day of a quarter (whether pursuant to ordinary withdrawal rights or where the special consent of the BDC Manager is required and, in its discretion, granted, in either case under Article IV of this Agreement) will be charged a pro rata portion of the Management Fee immediately prior to such withdrawal based on the number of days elapsed during such quarter and the portion withdrawn from such Capital Account. If a Shareholder has withdrawn all of its Capital Account except for its interest in one or more Side Pocket Investments, the Management Fee payable with respect to such Stockholder’s interest in each Side Pocket Investment will be accrued and, upon the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to each such Side Pocket Investment, will be paid to the BDC Manager. The BDC Manager may, in its sole discretion, enter into arrangements with BDC Investors under which the Management Fee is reduced, waived or calculated differently with respect to such BDC Investors, including, without limitation, BDC Investors that are members, affiliates or employees of the BDC Manager, members of the immediate families of such persons and trusts or other entities for their benefit, or BDC Investors that make a substantial investment or otherwise are determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion to represent a strategic relationship.

(b) The BDC will bear (or reimburse the BDC Manager for) all expenses of the offering of Shares and organization of the BDC (including legal and other expenses) (“Organizational Expenses”). The Organizational Expenses will be amortized and charged to the Investors’ Capital Accounts on a Quarterly basis over a period of sixty (60) months. If the BDC is dissolved within sixty (60) months of the commencement of investment activities, any unamortized expenses will be recognized. The BDC shall pay for all ordinary operating and other expenses, including, but not limited to, investment-related expenses (e.g., brokerage commissions, clearing and settlement charges, custodial fees, interest expenses, expenses relating to consultants, brokers or other professionals or advisors who provide research, advice or due diligence services with regard to investments, appraisal fees and expenses, and investment banking expenses); research costs and expenses (including fees for news, quotation and similar information and pricing services); legal expenses (including, without limitation, the costs of on-going legal advice and services, blue sky filings and all costs and expenses related to or incurred in connection with the BDC Manager’s compliance obligations under applicable federal and/or state securities and investment adviser laws arising out of its relationship to the BDC, as well as extraordinary legal expenses, such as those related to litigation or regulatory investigations or proceedings); the Management Fee; accounting fees and audit expenses; administrative fees; tax preparation expenses and any applicable tax liabilities (including transfer taxes and withholding taxes); other governmental charges or fees payable by the BDC; director and officer and/or errors and omissions liability insurance premiums or fiduciary liability insurance premiums for directors, officers and personnel of the BDC Manager; costs of printing and mailing reports and notices; and other similar expenses related to the BDC, as the BDC Manager determines in its sole discretion.

5.07 Reliance on Authority of BDC Manager. No Person dealing with the BDC Manager or the BDC shall be required to determine the authority of the BDC Manager to make any undertaking on behalf of the BDC or to determine any fact or circumstance bearing upon the existence of such authority. No purchaser of any property or interest owned by the BDC shall be required to determine the sole and exclusive authority of the BDC Manager to execute and deliver, on behalf of the BDC, any and all documents and instruments in connection therewith or to see to the application or distribution of revenues or proceeds paid or credited in connection therewith.

5.08 Limitation of Liability; Indemnification.

(a) The BDC Manager and each Affiliated Person shall not be liable, responsible nor accountable in damages or otherwise to the BDC or any Shareholder, or to any successor, assignee or transferee of the BDC or of any Shareholder, for (i) any acts performed or the omission to perform any acts, within the scope of the authority conferred on the BDC Manager by this Agreement, except by reason of acts or omissions found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final non-appealable judgment to have been made in bad faith or to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence; (ii) performance by the BDC Manager of, or the omission to perform, any acts on advice of legal counsel, accountants, or other professional advisors to the BDC; (iii) the negligence, dishonesty, bad faith, or other misconduct of any consultant, employee, or agent of the BDC, including, without limitation, an Affiliated Person of the BDC Manager, selected or engaged by the BDC Manager with reasonable care and in good faith; or (iv) the negligence, dishonesty, bad faith, or other misconduct of any Person in which the BDC invests or with which the BDC participates as a Shareholder, joint venturer, or in another capacity, which was selected by the BDC Manager with reasonable care and in good faith. The BDC Manager and each Affiliated Person shall not be liable to the BDC or to any Shareholder, or any successors, assignees, or transferees of the BDC or any Shareholder, for any loss, damage, expense, or other liability due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, strikes, labor troubles, riots, fires, blowouts, tornadoes, floods, bank moratoria, trading suspensions on any exchange, acts of a public enemy, insurrections, acts of God, acts of terrorism, failures to carry out the provisions hereof due to prohibitions imposed by law, rules, or regulations promulgated by any governmental agency, or any demand or requisition by any government authority.

(b) To the fullest extent permitted by law, the BDC, in the BDC Manager's sole discretion, shall indemnify and hold harmless the BDC Manager and each Affiliated Person and the legal representatives of any of them (an "Indemnified Party"), from and against any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense suffered or sustained by an Indemnified Party by reason of (i) any acts, omissions or alleged acts or omissions arising out of or in connection with the BDC, this Agreement or any investment made or held by the BDC (including, without limitation, any judgment, award, settlement, reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding, or claim), provided that such acts, omissions or alleged acts or omission upon which such actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim are based are not found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final non-appealable judgment to have been made in bad faith or to constitute fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence by such Indemnified Party, or (ii) any acts or omissions, or alleged acts or omissions, of any broker or agent of any Indemnified Party, provided that such broker or agent was selected, engaged or retained by the Indemnified Party in accordance with reasonable care.

(c) The BDC shall, in the sole discretion of the BDC Manager, advance to any Indemnified Party reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any action or proceeding that arises out of such conduct. In the event that such an advance is made by the BDC, the Indemnified Party shall agree to reimburse the BDC for such fees, costs and expenses to the extent that it shall be determined that it was not entitled to indemnification under this Section 5.08.

(d) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 5.08 shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of the BDC Manager or any Affiliated Person for any liability (including liability under federal or state securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 5.08 to the fullest extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE VI – POWERS, RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF BDC INVESTORS

6.01 Powers and Rights. Except as expressly set forth herein, the BDC Investors shall not take part in, or interfere in any manner with, the conduct or control of the BDC business, or have any right or authority to act or sign for, or to obligate the BDC. The BDC Investors shall not at any time be entitled to withdraw all or any part of their contribution to the capital of the BDC except to the extent they are entitled to withdrawals pursuant to the provisions of Article IV hereof. Except as expressly set forth herein, the BDC Investors shall have no right to amend or terminate the BDC, or to appoint, select, vote for or remove the BDC Manager or its agents, or to otherwise participate in the business decisions of the BDC. The BDC Investors shall have no right to demand and receive any property other than Cash in return for their contributions, and, prior to the dissolution and liquidation of the BDC pursuant to Article IX hereof, their right to Cash shall be limited to the rights set forth in Article IV hereof.

6.02 BHCA Subject Persons. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, solely for purposes of any provision of this Agreement that confers voting rights on the BDC Investors and any other provisions hereof regarding consents of or action by the BDC Investors, any BHCA Subject Person that shall have given the BDC a written notice to the BDC Manager of its election not to be treated as a BHCA Subject Person, and shall not thereafter have given the BDC a notice of revocation of such election, and that at any time has an Allocation Percentage in excess of four and nine-tenths percent (4.9%) of the aggregate Allocation Percentages of the BDC Investors entitled to participate in such voting or the giving of any consent or the taking of any action, shall be deemed to hold an Allocation Percentage of only four and nine-tenths percent of the aggregate Allocation Percentages of the BDC Investors (after giving effect to the limitations imposed by this Article VI on all such BDC Investors), and such Allocation Percentage in excess of said four and nine-tenths percent shall be deemed held by the BDC Investors who are not BHCA Subject Persons, pro rata in proportion to their respective Allocation Percentages; provided that this limitation shall not prohibit a Shareholder from voting or participating in giving or withholding consent or taking any action under any provision of the Agreement up to the full amount of its Allocation Percentage in situations where such Stockholder's vote or consent or action is of the type customarily provided by statute or stock exchange rules with regard to matters that would significantly and adversely affect the rights or preference of the affected Interest. The foregoing voting restriction shall continue to apply with respect to any assignee or other transferee of such BHCA Subject Person's BDC Interest; provided, however, that the foregoing voting restriction shall not continue to apply if the BDC Interest is transferred: (i) to the BDC; (ii) to the public in an offering registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"); (iii) in a transaction pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act in which no person acquires more than two percent (2%) of the aggregate Capital Account balances of the BDC Investors; or (iv) in a single transaction to a third party who acquires at least a majority of the aggregate Capital Account balances of the BDC Investors without regard to the transfer of Shares to which such Capital Accounts relate.

ARTICLE VII – ACCOUNTING, BOOKS AND RECORDS; REPORTS TO INVESTORS

7.01 Accounting Methods. The BDC Manager shall prepare the accounting statements for the BDC on an accrual basis in accordance with GAAP (except to the extent the BDC's independent auditor determines that the amortization of the Organizational Expenses does not comply with GAAP), and shall be empowered to make any changes of accounting method that it shall deem advisable.

7.02 Books and Records. The BDC Manager shall keep or cause to be kept, at the BDC's expense, full, complete and accurate books of account and other records showing the assets, liabilities, costs, expenditures, receipts, Net Profits and Net Losses of the BDC, the respective Capital Accounts of the Investors and such other matters required by the Act. Such books of account shall be the property of the BDC, shall be kept in accordance with sound accounting principles and procedures consistently applied, and shall be open to the reasonable inspection and examination of the Investors or their duly authorized representatives upon notice to the BDC Manager. The books of account shall be maintained at the principal office of the BDC Manager or at the office of the BDC's accounting or administrative firm, as determined by the BDC Manager in its sole discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the BDC Manager is not obligated to show any Investors records detailing the actual Securities trades placed by the BDC. Information regarding the BDC's trading and specific investments is proprietary.

7.03 Tax Matters Shareholder. The BDC Manager is hereby designated as the "tax matters partner," pursuant to Code Section 6231 and the Regulations thereunder. The tax matters partner shall represent the BDC in all Federal income tax matters, and shall hire attorneys, accountants and other professionals at BDC expense, as it deems necessary to defend the positions taken by the BDC for Federal income tax purposes.

7.04 Reports to Investors. The BDC Manager will furnish audited financial statements to all BDC Investors within 90 days, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable, following the conclusion of each Fiscal Year, although the BDC Manager may elect to postpone the first audit of the BDC's annual financial statements until the completion of the Fiscal Year after the Fiscal Year in which the BDC commenced investment activities, in which case the initial audit will cover the applicable Fiscal Year as well as the partial "stub" year in which the BDC commenced operations. Financial statements will include a balance sheet or statement of financial condition, an income statement or statement of operations, and a cash flow statement. In addition, all BDC Investors will receive the information necessary to prepare federal and state income tax returns following the conclusion of such Fiscal Year as soon thereafter as is reasonably practical.

All BDC Investors will also receive unaudited performance reports and such other information as the BDC Manager determines on a quarterly basis. With regard to these reports, the BDC Manager is not required to provide information about specific investment transactions of the BDC.

7.05 Preparation of Reports. In the preparation of any reports required to be delivered pursuant to Section 7.04, Securities shall be valued at their Fair Market Value, and any change in such Fair Market Value (except to the extent attributable to a change in the Fair Market Value of Securities held in a Side Pocket Investment Account) shall be treated as an item of Net Profit or Net Loss. For reporting purposes, Securities held in a Side Pocket Investment Account shall be carried on the books of the BDC at the lesser of cost or book value unless the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, determines that an alternative fair value should be used.

7.06 Adjustment of Tax Basis. In the event of a transfer of a BDC Interest in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, upon the request of any Shareholder, the BDC Manager shall cause the BDC to elect, pursuant to Section 754 of the Code ("Section 754 Election"), to adjust the basis of the BDC property if (a) the effect of such adjustment is to increase the adjusted basis of BDC property and (b) such requesting Shareholder agrees to bear any additional expense attributable to accounting and recordkeeping required as a result of the BDC's Section 754 Election.

ARTICLE VIII –TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT OF STOCK

8.01 General Prohibition. No Shareholder shall assign, convey, sell, transfer, encumber or in any way alienate all or any part of his or her BDC Interest without the prior written consent of the BDC Manager, which consent may be withheld in the BDC Manager's sole and absolute discretion.

8.02 Requirements upon Transfer. Any transfer of a BDC Interest permitted under Section 8.01 hereof or any other provision of this Agreement shall be subject to the following:

(a) The permitted transferee shall have executed a written agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the BDC Manager, to assume all of the duties and obligations of the transferor Shareholder under this Agreement and to be bound by and subject to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(b) The transferor Shareholder and the transferee shall have executed a written agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the BDC Manager, to indemnify and hold the BDC and the Investors harmless from and against any liabilities, losses, costs and expenses arising out of the transfer, including, without limitation, any liability arising by reason of the violation of any securities laws of the United States, any State of the United States, or any foreign country;

(c) The transferor Shareholder has delivered to the BDC Manager an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the BDC Manager that such transfer would not violate the Securities Act, as amended, or any blue sky laws (including any investor suitability standards);

(d) The transferor Shareholder demonstrates that such transfer, when added to the total of all other sales or exchanges of Shares within the preceding 12 months, would not result in the BDC being considered to have terminated within the meaning of Section 708 of the Code and that such transfer will not result in the BDC being treated as a publicly-traded BDC within the meaning of Section 7704 of the Code;

(e) The transferor Shareholder has demonstrated that such transfer will not cause the assets of the BDC to be "plan assets" for purposes of ERISA;

(f) The transferee shall have executed a power of attorney substantially identical to that contained in Article X hereof, and shall execute and swear to such other documents and instruments as the BDC Manager may deem necessary to effect the admission of the transferee as a Shareholder;

(g) The transferee shall have executed, in favor of the BDC and the BDC Manager, an instrument containing representations by such transferee substantially identical to the representations and investment qualifications of the Shareholder set forth in the Subscription Agreement;

(h) The transferee shall have paid the reasonable expenses incurred by the BDC in connection with the admission of the transferee to the BDC; and

(i) The transferee shall only effect a transfer on the first business day of any calendar month.

8.03 Unauthorized Transfer. Any purported transfer of a BDC Interest not expressly permitted by this Article VIII or consented to by the BDC Manager shall be null and void and of no effect whatsoever.

8.04 Interest of the Transferee. In the event that a Shareholder shall have obtained the consent of the BDC Manager to a transfer of all or a portion of its BDC Interest in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the transferee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the transferor to the extent that the Capital Account relates to the transferred Interest and to the transferor's interest in all Side Pocket Investment Accounts.

8.05 BDC Manager Transfers. Without the approval of BDC Investors whose Allocation Percentages represent more than fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate Allocation Percentages of all BDC Investors on the relevant date of determination, the BDC Manager may not transfer its Interest as BDC Manager in the BDC; provided however, that the BDC Manager may transfer its Interest as BDC Manager without the consent of any Shareholder (i) to any entity controlled by, controlling or under common control with it or any of the Principals, or (ii) pursuant to a transaction not deemed to involve an "assignment" of this Agreement within the meaning of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. In the case of any transfer pursuant to the preceding clauses (i) and (ii), the transferee shall be admitted to the BDC as a substitute BDC Manager, all references herein to the BDC Manager shall thereafter be deemed references to the transferee BDC Manager, and the BDC Manager will promptly notify the BDC Investors of any such transfer of its Interest.

ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION OF BDC

9.01 Dissolution. The BDC shall be dissolved upon the expiration of the term of the BDC as set forth in Section 1.04 hereof. In the event that the BDC is dissolved on a date other than the last day of a Fiscal Year, the date of such dissolution shall be deemed to be the last day of an Accounting Period for purposes of adjusting the Capital Accounts of the Investors. For purposes of distributing the assets of the BDC upon dissolution, the BDC Manager shall be entitled to a return, on a pari passu basis with the BDC Investors, of the amount standing to its credit in its Capital Account and, with respect to its share of profits, based upon its Allocation Percentage.

9.02 Winding Up and Distribution of Assets.

(a) Upon the dissolution of the BDC, the BDC shall continue in existence for a reasonable period of time for the purpose of winding up its affairs, and the BDC Manager (or any Liquidating Agent appointed pursuant to Section 9.02(c) below) shall wind up the BDC's affairs and cause the sale of the BDC's assets (except those to be distributed in kind or retained pursuant to Section 9.03 below) as expediently as is practicable and prudent and in such manner as the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent, in its sole discretion, determines appropriate to obtain the best prices. Nothing herein shall preclude a sale of any asset of the BDC to any Shareholder or affiliate of a Shareholder. Any property distributed in kind in the liquidation shall be valued at Fair Market Value in determining the amount distributed to Investors. Whether any assets of the BDC shall be liquidated through sale or shall be distributed to the Investors in kind shall be a matter left to the sole discretion of the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent. The BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent shall conduct (or cause to be conducted) a full accounting of the assets and liabilities of the BDC and cause a balance sheet of the BDC to be prepared as of the date of dissolution and a profit and loss statement for the period commencing after the end of the preceding Accounting Period and ending on the date of dissolution, and such financial statements shall be furnished to all of the Investors.

(b) The proceeds of the sale of the BDC's property and assets, plus any unsold assets to be distributed in-kind, shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

- (i) Payment of the debts and liabilities of the BDC incurred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and payment of the expenses of liquidation;
- (ii) Setting up of reserves as set forth in Section 9.03 below, as the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent may deem reasonably necessary, for any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the BDC or any obligation or liability not then due and payable; provided, any unspent balance of the reserves shall be distributed in the manner hereinafter provided when deemed reasonably prudent by the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent;
- (iii) Payment, on a pro rata basis, of any loans from or debts incurred in accordance with the terms of this Agreement owed to Investors; and
- (iv) Payment to the Investors, on a pro rata basis, of the remaining positive balances of their Capital Accounts, adjusted to the date of payment as set forth in Article III.

(c) The BDC may, from time to time, enter into (and modify and terminate) agreements with a liquidating agent or trustee selected by the BDC Manager if the BDC Manager is unwilling to manage the winding up process or, in the event the BDC Manager is disqualified pursuant to Section 4.02(b) or otherwise is unable to manage the winding up process, such person as may be designated by BDC Investors holding more than 50% of the Allocation Percentages held by BDC Investors (in either such case, a “Liquidating Agent”), authorizing the Liquidating Agent to wind up the BDC’s affairs; provided that the total compensation the BDC may become obligated to pay to such Liquidating Agent(s) during such winding up period will not exceed the aggregate amount of the Management Fee the BDC would otherwise pay the BDC Manager pursuant to Section 5.06(a) hereof during such winding up period.

(d) In the event that the BDC is liquidated within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g), the distributions made pursuant to this Section 9.02 shall be made in compliance with 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(2). In the event that the BDC is liquidated within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g), but the BDC has not dissolved pursuant to Section 9.01 above, the BDC shall be deemed to distribute the BDC’s property to the Investors, who shall be deemed to assume and take such property subject to the BDC’s liabilities, all in accordance with the balances of their respective Capital Accounts. Immediately thereafter, the Investors shall be deemed to recontribute such property in kind to the BDC, who shall be deemed to assume and take such property subject to all such liabilities. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no Shareholder shall have any obligation to restore any negative or deficit balance in its Capital Account upon dissolution or liquidation of the BDC, or otherwise.

9.03 Reserves

(a) If there are any assets that, in the judgment of the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent, cannot be valued properly until sold or realized or cannot be distributed properly in kind or cannot be sold without sacrificing a substantial portion of the value thereof, such assets may be excluded from the valuation of assets for purposes of computing the amount available for distribution upon dissolution and termination of the BDC pursuant to this Article IX. Any Stockholder’s pro rata interest in such assets shall not be paid or distributed in kind to it until such time as the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines that circumstances no longer require such assets to be so excluded (in whole or in part).

(b) If there is any contingent liability of the BDC or any pending transaction or claim by the BDC the remaining value of which cannot, in the judgment of the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent, then be determined, the probable loss or liability, or value of the claim, as the case may be, may be excluded from the valuation of assets or liabilities for purposes of computing the amount available for distribution upon dissolution and termination of the BDC pursuant to this Article IX. No amount shall be paid or charged to any such Stockholder’s Capital Account on account of any such contingency, transaction or claim until its final settlement or such earlier time as the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent shall determine. The BDC may retain from sums otherwise due each Shareholder an amount that the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent estimates to be sufficient to cover the share of such Shareholder of any probable loss or liability on account of such contingency, or the probable value of the transaction or claim. Any amount so withheld from a Shareholder shall be held in a segregated interest-bearing account (which may be commingled with similar accounts of other Investors). Any unused portion of such reserve shall be distributed with interest accrued thereon once the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent has determined that the need therefor has ceased.

(c) Upon determination by the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent that circumstances no longer require the exclusion of assets or retention of sums as provided in subsections (a) and (b) hereof, the BDC Manager or Liquidating Agent shall, at the earliest practicable time, pay such sums or distribute such assets or the proceeds realized from the sale of such assets to each Shareholder from whom such sums or assets have been withheld.

9.04 No Action for Dissolution. The Investors acknowledge that irreparable damage will be done to the BDC (on account of a premature liquidation of the BDC’s assets, loss of goodwill and reputation, and other factors) if any Shareholder seeks to dissolve, terminate or liquidate the BDC by litigation or otherwise. The Investors further acknowledge that this Agreement has been drawn carefully to provide fair treatment of all parties and equitable payments in liquidation of the Shares of all Investors, and that the Investors entered into this Agreement with the intention that the BDC continue until dissolved and liquidated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Accordingly, each Shareholder hereby waives and renounces any right to dissolve, terminate or liquidate the BDC, or to obtain the appointment of a receiver or trustee to liquidate the BDC, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

9.05 No Further Claim. Each Shareholder shall look solely to the assets of the BDC for the return of its investment in the BDC (including capital contributions and loans from a Shareholder to the BDC), and no Shareholder shall have any liability or obligation to the BDC or to any other Shareholder to repay any unreturned capital contributions or loans made by any Shareholder to the BDC.

ARTICLE X – POWER OF ATTORNEY

10.01 Grant and Scope of Power. Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the BDC Manager as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution, in its name, place and stead, to make, execute and acknowledge, swear to, record, publish and file:

(a) Any agreement, document or instrument pertaining to the sale, transfer, conveyance or encumbrance of all or any portion of the property of the BDC in accordance with the terms of this Agreement;

(b) Any document or instrument with respect to the BDC that may be required or permitted to be filed under the laws of any state or of the United States, or which the BDC Manager shall deem necessary, desirable or advisable to file; and

(c) Any document that might be required to effectuate the dissolution, termination and liquidation of the BDC.

The foregoing power of attorney is coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable and shall survive the death, incompetency, dissolution, merger, consolidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of each of the Investors. The Investors shall execute and deliver to the BDC Manager, within five (5) days after receipt of the BDC Manager's request therefor, such further designations, powers of attorney and other instruments as the BDC Manager reasonably deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XI – MISCELLANEOUS

11.01 Additional Documents. At any time and from time to time after the date of this Agreement, upon the request of the BDC Manager, the Investors shall do and perform, or cause to be done and performed, all such additional acts and deeds, and shall execute, acknowledge and deliver, or cause to be executed, acknowledged and delivered, all such additional instruments and documents, as may be required to best effectuate the purposes and intent of this Agreement.

11.02 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, construed under, and enforced and interpreted in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware.

11.03 Jurisdiction. Any action or proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any right arising out of, this Agreement may be brought against any of the parties in the courts of the State of Florida, and each of the parties consents to the jurisdiction of such courts in any such action or proceeding and waives any objection to venue laid therein.

11.04 Notices. Any notices required by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if (i) delivered in person, (ii) if mailed postage prepaid, by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested, (iii) if transmitted by electronic mail, telex or facsimile, (iv) if sent by second day service by Federal Express or any other nationally recognized courier service, postage prepaid or (v) if sent by Federal Express or any other nationally recognized overnight courier service or overnight express U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, to the Shareholder at the address set forth below in its execution of this Agreement, or to such other address of which the BDC Manager subsequently shall have been notified in writing by such Shareholder. Notices personally delivered or transmitted by electronic mail, telex or facsimile shall be deemed to have been given on the date so delivered or transmitted. Notices mailed shall be deemed to have been given on the date three (3) business days after the date posted, notices sent in accordance with (iv) above shall be deemed to have been given on the date two business days after the date posted, and notices sent in accordance with (v) above shall be deemed to have been given the next business day after delivery to the courier service or U.S. Mail (in time for next day delivery).

11.05 Agreement; Amendments. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior understanding or agreement among them respecting the subject matter hereof. There are no representations, arrangements, understandings or agreements, oral or written, among the parties hereto relating to the subject matter of this agreement, except those fully expressed herein. No change or modification of this Agreement or waiver of any provision hereof shall be valid or binding on the parties hereto, unless such change, modification or waiver shall be in writing and signed by or on behalf of the parties hereto, and no waiver on one occasion shall be deemed to be a waiver of the same or any other provision hereof in the future. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, amendments can be effected pursuant to the following conditions:

(a) Except as set forth elsewhere in this Section 11.05, this Agreement may be amended from time to time, in whole or in part, with the written consent of BDC Investors having in excess of 50% of the Capital Account balances then held by all BDC Investors (and the affirmative vote of the BDC Manager).

(b) The BDC Manager may, without the consent of the other BDC Investors, issue side letters to investors providing a materially different fee schedule and liquidity structure and may also amend this Agreement (i) to change the BDC's name, registered office or business office, (ii) to make a change that is necessary or, in the BDC Manager's opinion advisable, to qualify the BDC as a BDC (or other entity in which the BDC Investors have limited liability) under the laws of any state and/or to preserve the BDC's classification for federal tax purposes as a BDC that is not a "publicly traded BDC" treated as a corporation under Code Section 7704, (iii) to make any amendment hereof as long as such amendment does not adversely affect the BDC Investors in any material respect, (iv) to make any change that is necessary or desirable to satisfy any requirements, conditions, or guidelines contained in any opinion, directive, order, statute, ruling, or regulation of any federal or state entity applicable to the BDC or the BDC Manager, so long as such change is made in a manner that minimizes any adverse effect on the BDC Investors, (v) to prevent the BDC from, in any manner, being deemed an investment company subject to registration under the Investment Company Act, (vi) if the BDC is advised that any allocations of income, gain, loss or deduction provided herein are unlikely to be respected for Federal income tax purposes, to amend the allocation provisions hereof, on advice of legal counsel, to the minimum extent necessary to effect the plan of allocations and distributions provided herein, (vii) to create a new class or series of Shares, which shall have such rights (including voting rights), powers, duties and obligations, including the payment of fees and carried Shares, as the BDC Manager may specify, (viii) to cure any ambiguity or to correct or supplement any provision contained herein which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provisions contained herein, or (ix) to take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to avoid the assets of the BDC being treated for any purpose of ERISA or Code Section 4975 as assets of any "employee benefit plan" as defined in and subject to ERISA or of any plan or account subject to Code Section 4975 (or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law) or to avoid the BDC Manager's engaging in a "prohibited transaction" as defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Code Section 4975(c).

(c) Nothing contained herein shall permit the amendment of this Agreement to reduce a Stockholder's Capital Account or Allocation Percentage, permit assessments on the BDC Investors or to increase the Management Fees or Carried Shares chargeable with respect to a Shareholder without the prior consent of the affected Shareholder(s); nor shall the following provisions hereof be amended without the consent of each of the BDC Investors adversely affected thereby and the BDC Manager: Sections 2.06, 4.01, 5.08, 9.01 and this Section 11.05.

(d) Copies of each amendment of this Agreement (other than an amendment pursuant to paragraph (b)) shall be delivered to each Shareholder at least ten days prior to the effective date thereof; provided that any amendment that the BDC Manager determines is necessary or appropriate to prevent the BDC from being a publicly traded BDC treated as a corporation under Code Section 7704 shall be effective on the date provided in the instrument containing such amendment. Amendments approved in accordance with this Section 11.05 shall be binding on all BDC Investors, including any that did not vote to approve the same, except as set forth in Section 11.05(c).

(e) BDC Investors shall have no right (i) to amend (except to the extent provided in Section 11.05(a)) or terminate this Agreement, (ii) to appoint, select, vote for, or remove the BDC Manager or its agents, or (iii) to exercise voting rights or otherwise participate in The BDC Manager or business decisions or otherwise in connection with the BDC property.

11.06 Consent by Failure to Respond to Notice. In the event that the BDC Manager seeks in writing the consent or approval of BDC Investors for any purposes hereunder (including, without limitation, any amendment hereof pursuant to Section 11.05), a Shareholder to whom notice has been delivered shall be deemed to have consented to the matter, unless the BDC Manager receives, within the time period specified in such notice, a written response from such Shareholder indicating that the Shareholder does not consent to the proposed action or matter described in the initial notice.

11.07 Severability. If any portion of this Agreement is held illegal or unenforceable, the Investors hereby covenant and agree that such portion or portions are absolutely and completely severable from all other provisions of this Agreement and such other provisions shall constitute the agreement of the Investors with respect to the subject matter hereof.

11.08 Successors. Subject to the provisions hereof imposing limitations and conditions upon the transfer, sale or other disposition of the Shares of the Investors in the BDC, all the provisions hereof shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the heirs, successors, legal representatives and assigns of the parties hereto.

11.09 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall for all purposes be deemed an original, and all of such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same agreement.

11.10 Section Headings. Section and other headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and are in no way intended to define, interpret, describe or limit the scope, extent or intent of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

11.11 Time. Time is of the essence in this Agreement.

11.12 Pronouns. All pronouns used in this Agreement in reference to any Shareholder shall include the neuter, masculine and feminine genders and the singular and the plural, as the context requires.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the BDC Manager, in its sole discretion, determines that such reported values do not properly represent the Fair Market Value of such investments, the BDC Manager may determine the fair value thereof. The Fair Market Value of all other assets of the BDC will be established in accordance with the valuation procedures set forth below:

(a) Securities which are listed on one or more United States or foreign securities exchanges or are traded on a recognized over-the-counter market (including the NASDAQ), or for which market quotations are available shall be valued at their last reported sales price on the date of determination on the primary exchange or market on which such Securities are traded or, if no sale occurred on the valuation date, the value for long positions shall be the “last bid” and the value for short positions shall be the “last ask” (or, if on such date securities markets were closed, then the last preceding business day on which they were open).

(b) Securities in the form of options listed on a securities exchange will be valued at the last reported sales price on the date of determination on the primary exchange or market on which such Securities are traded or, if the last sales price does not fall between the “last bid” and “last ask” price for such options on such date, such options will be valued at the mean between “last bid” and “last ask” prices on the date of determination.

(c) Commodity future contracts will be valued at the most recent available closing quotation on the commodity exchange on which the commodity futures contract is traded by the BDC. Foreign currency exchange contracts will be valued at the current cost of covering or offsetting such contracts. Futures instruments will be valued at the settlement price on the exchange on which that futures interest is traded on the day the value is being determined. However, if a futures interest could not have been liquidated on that day because of the operation of daily limits or other rules of the exchange or otherwise, the settlement price on the first subsequent day on which the futures interest could be liquidated will be the market value of that futures interest for that day.

(d) Securities generally traded on an established securities market but for which no recorded sales information or quotations of bid and ask prices are available on such date (or, if applicable, the last preceding business day) shall be valued by the BDC Manager in good faith with reference to (i) the most recently reported bid and ask prices (in that order), (ii) bid and ask price information as of such date not generally reported but secured from a reputable broker or investment banker, and (iii) such other information as the BDC Manager believes in good faith is relevant.

(e) Securities not listed or traded on any exchange or on the over-the-counter market shall be valued based upon quotations obtained from independent market makers, dealers or pricing services, and if no such quotations are available, shall be considered as having no ascertainable market value and shall be valued at cost or fair value based on information available to the BDC Manager regarding the value or worthlessness of such Securities.

(f) For purposes of this definition, sales and bid and ask prices reported in newspapers of general circulation, or in electronic quotation systems or in standard financial periodicals or in the records of securities exchanges or other markets, any one or more of which may be selected by the BDC Manager, shall be accepted as evidence of the price of a Security.

(g) A Security purchased, and awaiting payment against delivery, shall be included for valuation purposes as a security held, and the cash account shall be adjusted by the deduction of the purchase price, including brokers' commissions or other expenses of the purchase.

(h) A Security sold but not delivered pending receipt of proceeds shall be valued at the net sales price.

(i) The BDC Manager may make adjustments to the value of Securities to best reflect Fair Market Value. All matters concerning the valuation of Securities, the allocation of profits, gains, and losses among the Investors, and accounting procedures not specifically and expressly provided for by the terms of this Agreement, shall be determined by the BDC Manager and shall be final and conclusive as to all of the Investors.

"Fiscal Year" of the BDC shall be the calendar year; provided, however, that the first Fiscal Year shall commence on the date of this Agreement and shall end on the December 31 next following the date of this Agreement.

"GAAP" means generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied.

"Interest" shall mean, for each Shareholder, all rights and Shares of that Shareholder in the BDC in its capacity as a Shareholder together with any and all obligations imposed on it hereunder or under the Act.

"Management Fee" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 5.06(a).

"Net Asset Value" means the net asset value of the assets of the BDC determined on the last day of an Accounting Period by:

- (a) Adding:
 - (i) the aggregate Fair Market Value of the BDC's investments (excluding Securities held in all Side Pocket Investment Accounts);
 - (ii) the aggregate uninvested cash balances of the BDC (such cash balances being adjusted as required under the sub-sections (g) and (h) of the definition of "Fair Market Value"),
 - (iii) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such assets as would generally be considered pre-payments of expenses to be amortized over future periods;
 - (iv) the aggregate Fair Market Value of all dividends and distributions payable in cash, stock or other property received by the BDC and the face value of all notes and other receivables; and
 - (v) the aggregate Fair Market Value of such other assets of the BDC as should be considered assets in accordance with GAAP (provided that the name and goodwill of the BDC shall not be included in calculating the Net Asset Value of the BDC).

(b) Deducting from the total sum obtained pursuant to sub-Section (a) above any liabilities and expenses due (including management fees payable for the current calendar quarter) in accordance with GAAP.

All amounts under sub-sections (a) and (b) above shall be stated in United States Dollars, with assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than United States Dollars to be converted to United States Dollars at published exchange rates in effect on the last day of such Accounting Period. The resulting Net Asset Value at the end of such Accounting Period shall constitute the initial Net Asset Value for the subsequent Accounting Period after adjustment to reflect withdrawals pursuant to Article IV and additional capital contributions by Investors and the admission of new Investors pursuant to Article II. Any increase in the Net Asset Value shall be deemed Net Capital Appreciation and any decrease in Net Asset Value shall be deemed Net Capital Depreciation. For purposes of determining Net Capital Appreciation or Net Capital Depreciation for an Accounting Period ending on the date a Side Pocket Investment Account was created, the ending Net Asset Value of the BDC for such Accounting Period shall be determined prior to deducting the Original Value of the applicable Side Pocket Investment to which such Side Pocket Investment Account is related so that any Net Capital Appreciation or Net Capital Depreciation for such Accounting Period is not in any way attributable to (or increased or decreased by) any Side Pocket Investments.

“Net Profit” or “Net Loss” shall mean, with respect to any Shareholder for any Accounting Period, the difference between (i) the sum of (a) the Net Capital Appreciation, if any, allocated to a Stockholder’s Capital Account for such Accounting Period pursuant to Section 3.02(a), plus (b) the Net Realized Gain, if any, by which such Stockholder’s Capital Account was increased for such Accounting Period pursuant to Section 3.04(c) in respect of Side Pocket Investment Accounts, and (ii) the sum of (a) the Net Capital Depreciation, if any, allocated to a Stockholder’s Capital Account for such Accounting Period pursuant to Section 3.02(a), plus (b) the Net Realized Loss, if any, by which such Stockholder’s Capital Account was decreased for such Accounting Period pursuant to Section 3.04(c) in respect of Side Pocket Investment Accounts. Any positive difference between the sums set forth in clause (i) and clause (ii) above shall be deemed Net Profit, and any negative difference between such sums shall be deemed Net Loss.

“Net Realized Gain” or “Net Realized Loss” shall mean, with respect to any Accounting Period, (i) prior to the occurrence of a Realization Event with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, the difference between (a) any realized income with respect to such Side Pocket Investment and (b) any realized losses incurred, or other expenditures made, with respect to such Side Pocket Investment, and (ii) at such time as a Realization Event occurs with respect to a Side Pocket Investment, the difference between (a) the amount of cash and/or the Fair Market Value of the consideration received in connection with such Realization Event (or the Fair Market Value of the Securities held in the applicable Side Pocket Investment Account, if such Realization Event is a “deemed” Realization Event), and (b) the Original Value of such Side Pocket Investment. In the case of either (i) or (ii) above, any positive difference between the amounts set forth in clause (a) and clause (b) above shall be deemed Net Realized Gain, and any negative difference between such sums shall be deemed Net Realized Loss.

“Original Value” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3.04(a).

“Other Accounts” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 5.05.

“Investors” shall mean, collectively, the BDC Manager and the BDC Investors, and reference to a “Shareholder” shall mean any one of the Investors.

“Carried Interest” shall have the meaning set forth in Section 3.02(b)(ii).

“Carried Interest Period” shall mean each performance period over which the allocations provided for in Section 3.02(b) and (c) are measured.

“Regulations” shall mean Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code as such Regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of succeeding Regulations).

“Securities” shall mean securities and other financial instruments of United States and foreign entities, including, without limitation, capital stock; shares of beneficial interest; Stock and similar financial instruments; Shares in real estate and real estate related assets; bonds, notes and debentures (whether subordinated, convertible or otherwise); currencies; commodities; interest rate, currency, commodity, equity and other derivative products, including, without limitation, (i) futures contracts (and options thereon) relating to stock indices, currencies, United States Government securities and securities of foreign governments, other financial instruments and all other commodities, (ii) swaps, options, warrants, caps, collars, floors and forward rate agreements, (iii) spot and forward currency transactions and (iv) agreements relating to or securing such transactions; asset-backed and mortgage-backed obligations; loans; credit paper; accounts and notes
